Thought for the Week: There is only one you... Don't you dare change just because you're outnumbered! Charles Swindoll

WHAT MAKES A DAD

*God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad*

BLOOD DONATION

It's that time of year to gear up for fun in the sun. School's out, vacations are planned and longstanding routines are replaced with carefree, casual days. It's also a time when the need for blood often outpaces donations.

High school and college students donate about 20 percent of the blood collected through the American Red Cross at scheduled drives on their campuses. When those drives are not held during the summer months donation totals drop. In addition, individuals who donate regularly at their place of worship, workplace or a donor center may overlook giving blood when summer activities fill calendars.

"The need for blood never takes a vacation," said Sharyn Whitman, CEO for the Indiana-Ohio Blood Services Region of the American Red Cross. "We encourage everyone who can donate to pick a date, make an appointment and honor that appointment to help keep our community blood supply strong."

Every two seconds, someone in the U.S. needs blood. These individuals are someone's friend, relative or neighbor. What if one of your loved ones needs blood this summer? Will the blood be available when needed?

"The Red Cross and the patients who receive lifesaving blood depend on volunteers to donate blood, even during the summer," said Whitman. "Add a blood donation to your list of summer activities. Your single donation could help save the lives of up to three patients and impact the lives of those three patients' friends and relatives."

UPCOMING AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVES IN YOUR AREA:

Monday, June 17, from 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. at the Evangelical United Methodist Church in the Main Room, located at 1000 Flaxmill Road in Huntington. This is a Fallen Officer blood drive.

Thursday, June 20, from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m. at the Knight-Bergman Center in the Main Room, located at 132 S. Nancy St. in Warren.

How to Donate Blood
To schedule an appointment to donate please call 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or visit redcrossblood.org for more information. Individuals who are 17 years of age (16 with parental permission in Indiana and Ohio), meet weight and height requirements (110 pounds or more, depending on their height) and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood. Please bring your Red Cross blood donor card or other form of positive ID when you come to donate.

ROOT BEER FOR CANCER

Cancer Services for Huntington County is holding their 6th Annual 'B&K Root Beer Stand Fund Raiser' on June 17. B&K is donating a $1 for each order that day to Cancer Services. This year we are also including a 'Cookie Bake Sale'. Funds from Cancer Services are used to help those battling cancer in Huntington County. ## KUDOS, KICKS & KARATS

THE UPTOWN GARDENER by Ruth Herring

The past week was a fun week and some not so fun. A trip to Shipshewana and a day of sewing at Heritage Pointe where a group of us do volunteer for various reasons. Then the rest of the week was dog sitting for Gayle's very spoiled dog while she spent the week in Florida spoiling her new grandbaby. It was worth it for her to get away and spend time with her kids.

Now I am trying to get quilters interested in taking part in the quilt show during the Salamonie Summer Festival. So all you ladies and gents who are quilters we would like for you to show your talents or show those cherished antique or aged quilts. Check the Warren Weekly for information.

I can recall many a time especially on cold winter days mom made her quilts and I would get to help knot them, seemed like it took forever to get one completed. She always made sure the tied off knots were the same length and she measured them by the length of one of her finger joints. Now I just eyeball it.

Recently a group of us finished 50 lap quilts for children with MD who will be going to summer camp, that was a rewarding experience. They also received a pillow slip for their own personal pillow.

I have finally got most all flowers planted for now and will be doing more this fall for spring showing and summer next. Now it is time to relax and enjoy the patio and think about a plan for fall.

Some time ago I bought a cook book that is called The Little Box of Quilters Chocolate Desserts. With each card is a recipe and directions to make a quilt block. It is fun to get it out and drool over the recipes and think someday I will make some of the quilt blocks. So far I have not done much of either. I share a recipe that someday I will make.

Double Chocolate Coconut Scones

2 cups flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder, 2 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter cut in small pieces, 2 eggs slightly beaten, 2/3 cup whipping cream, 1 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/3 cup shredded coconut, 1/3 cup semisweet chocolate miniature pieces and granulated sugar for garnish.

Preheat oven to 425° line a large baking sheet with foil. In a large bowl combine dry ingredients. Using a pastry blender cut in butter until coarse and crumbly. Make a well in the center in the flour mix. In a small bowl stir in eggs, vanilla and cream. Add to the dry mixture and stir just till moistened stir in coconut and chocolate pieces. Turn out onto a lightly floured surface and knead 6 times, dough will be sticky and handle as little as possible. Divide dough in half. Pat each into a 5 inch round and transfer to the baking sheet, score each round into 6 wedge pieces scoring about 1/4 inch deep. Sprinkle with sugar, bake about 12 minutes cool on wire rack, serve warm.

Try it you might like it.
Have a great summer.

HATTER REPORT

Sometimes life is enriched when you have small adventures with friends. The Real Elegant Dames had such an experience on June 10th. The group met at Heritage Pointe and car pooled to Huntington for lunch at Bob Evens Restaurant. Jo Chatham, an inactive member was able to join us for lunch. Also attending were Willy Milar, Mary Palmer, Lilly Nutter, Freddie Couch, Cris Lee, Virginia Langdon and Queen Mum Becky Parker. After lunch the group traveled on to the Majenica Creek Honey Farm. One interesting fact we learned at the farm is that their bees are snowbirds. The Majenica Creek bees spent last winter in California pollinating orchards there. Coming events for the Dames will be acting as greeters at the Salamonie Summer Festival Art & Flower Show and riding in the festival parade on July 5th.

COUNCIL NOTES

On Wednesday evening, June 5 the Van Buren Town Council met in the Council Room at Town Hall. President Marvin Surber opened the meeting at 7 p.m. All in attendance repeated the Pledge to the American Flag.

Tim Eckerle from Grant County Economic Growth Council was in attendance. He submitted a Resolution for tax abatement for Modern Machine for additional equipment.

Three citizens were in attendance with concerns about properties that need to be cleaned up. There was discussion about the situation.

Officer Pat Collins presented the Police report. He reported that a new list has been drawn up which includes junk and abandoned vehicles in Van Buren. Letters have been sent to the violators.

Superintendent Rob Reeder gave his report. He reported all meters had been read in May. He also said that second notices have been sent to property owners asking them to get their properties cleaned up.

A discussion was held as to what streets in Van Buren could be paved this summer with funds available.

The next Council meeting will be June 19.
