RAIN, RAIN, GO AWAY!

We had an amazing turn out last weekend during our greenhouse opening! Thank you to everyone that braved the weather and stopped by! If only we could get the rain to quit so we can all get outside and do our planting! Not to worry though, we'll keep everything growing in our greenhouses for that wonderful moment when it turns sunny! We've added extended hours for the season so there's plenty of time available to pick out your plants.

Something new and special in our shop is an entire student-pottery section from JH Pottery Works! Peruse from a wide variety of bowls, vases, and other unique forms. With Mother's Day around the corner Josh is working on his custom "mom mug" design which will be featured soon. As always, we have a wide assortment of fresh flowers, pottery, and greenhouse plants to really make Mom feel special!

We're looking forward to this spring season (especially when the sun comes out!) and hope to see you soon! Our extended hours are Monday through Saturday 9-5pm and Sunday's 1-5pm.

FESTIVAL FUNDRAISER

Come enjoy the "World Famous Van Buren Lions Club Tenderloins" and support the 2019 Van Buren Popcorn Festival. Saturday, May 11th from 4-7pm at the Van Buren Lions Club Den, the Van Buren Popcorn Festival Committee will be having their annual Tenderloin fundraiser.

QUILT SHOW

We are starting to get serious about the summer quilt show to be held during the Salamonie Summer Festival. Again the show will be at the Fults Recreation room at Heritage Pointe. Our thanks to the people at Heritage Pointe for allowing the use of the beautiful room to share the quilts.

Our goal is to make it as big and beautiful as the previous show.

Again this year we are including crochet, knitted items which was well received by those attending the show. This category is for hand crochet or knitted items for home decor or wearable items.

Lets make this years show another great success.

Quilted items can be antique, hand quilted, machine quilted, home decor items, comforters which are hand tied or knotted. Any size quilts can be entered and must be clean and smoke free.

Kudos, Kicks & Karats

DEAR WARREN COMMUNITY,

On behalf of all the pageant contestants thank you for the support. We are so fortunate to live in such a supportive community. By supporting this event you support the future of the community. All 25 girls are very talented and will continue to grow. Warren is fortunate to have so many young girls participating in community services. By participating in the pageant the ladies all stepped into a whirlwind of speeches, dresses, talent, and improv. I am blessed to have met these bright wonderful young ladies. Every girl by being a part of the event gained valuable skills that they will use throughout their lifetime. Thank you for helping these young women expand their capabilities.

Miss Warren Pageant
Miss Warren Jade Stuber

Well we sure have had our fair share of rainy weather. This past Monday we were fortunate to have a great day. Kendra, Tara and I took a trip to Richmond Indiana and the surrounding areas. Our first stop was in Hagerstown Indiana for some Abbotts Carmels, which I am crazy for. Yea I can make them and just as good but there is just something about their carmels. We went to Cambridge City to the National Road Antique Mall and we did find some good stuff. I collect red plaid Better Homes cook books and I do have several, but lucked out and found one I didn't have and it was just the right price. Even in good shape. This area is known for there antique stores. When you get into Wayne county, find a place to pick up your maps, Trail 1 and Trail 2. It will take you to all the shops, but I do suggest you don't go on a Monday, a lot of them are not open.

Next stop was to the Warm Glow Candle Company. When Bob and Nancy Smyth had Handcrafters Marketplace down town Warren, they carried a lot of Warm Glow candles and if I remember right the Carrot Cake candle was the hot seller. The candle store is located in Centerville Indiana just off of I-70. It was a very unique store with the candles, home décor, a small eatery, a whole supply of Indiana wines and some craft beers. It took a little time going through looking at everything, but worth the stop.

AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND TRIP DAY #11

By Larry Ryan
The Noordam made Port in Hobart, Tasmania at 7am. This capitol city has a population of 20,000. Tasmania is the smallest state and only island state of Australia. It lies 150 miles southeast of Melbourne.

The first view of the harbour from our window displayed several clusters of foam floating aimlessly on the water's surface. The surprising aspect of this was that the upper portions of the foam were of geometrically round shapes.

They simulated white, styrofoam balls that bounced and rolled downwind in the breeze. Obviously, traveling south of the equator has affected my sense of entertainment.

For our shore excursion, we boarded bus #9 and headed for the Bonorong Wilderness Sanctuary, just outside of Hobart. The first town building we passed was the Hog's Breath Café where the aborigines had meals for thousands of years. Actually only part of that statement is true. These original residents were living in Tasmania that long but probably ate elsewhere.

Tasmania officially became a British Colony in 1893. Its current population is 526,000.

Much of the country is mountainous. We crossed an expansive bridge and a scenic, wide valley where we saw ducks and black (upper part) swans in the water before ascending uphill to our destination.

The wildlife sanctuary was a rescue operation which rehabs injured animals and birds. Kangaroos were of various ages, very tame, and free-roaming. Instructions were presented on how to feed and pet them if desired.

Feed was free so the strange-looking currency stayed in my billfold. My hand was just inches above the ground as I quietly approached the "roo." The moderate-sized animal nibbled the grain from my hand which left my hand relatively dry and all fingers intact. Scratching its chest came next as advocated by an attendant. Also saw Tasmanian Devils, koalas, emu, and many others.

Tasmania is infamously called, the "Roadkill Capitol of the World" due to its nocturnal animal population and excessive auto speeds.

The ship's evening entertainment was the Tasmanian Police Bagpipe Band.

We finally decided we better get some lunch so we went in to the historic Richmond area. John took me there several years ago for my birthday. They were just starting to get it all redone, but they really haven't made much progress. Once again we ate at the Firehouse BBQ and Blues restaurant.

Their menu is limited but the food is very good. It was the second time I ate there and I was very happy with the food. I ended up with a bbq brisket baked potato, Tara got the bbq brisket sandwich, and Kendra got a shredded chicken sandwich. Another thing about this county, just driving through and looking at all the murals painted on the buildings is awesome.

Our next stop I couldn't remember what it was, but it was called the Muddy Monkey. Well it was an ice cream shop. You go in and grab a cup and with a selection of about 12 different soft serve ice creams, then you got to top it with all kinds of topping and then they charge you by the ounce. So you must be careful how much you stuff in your cup. lol Well you know me I am the chocolate peanut butter nut so I had 3 different kinds of ice cream chocolate obsession, peanut butter, and a chocolate peanut butter mix with all the chocolate peanut butter toppings and nuts. Then of course they just had to have Dole pineapple whip so in a clean corner of my cup I reserved a little spot for some of that, it was a must. So for those of you that know I don't mix my food, I was very careful not to combine my pineapple and the other together.

Next we went to a bargain store. It was like a huge junk store in my book, it had its good and its bad but I must say they had a heck of a display of Christmas tree's on sale. Kendra and I walked back to the room off to the side and I went in first, I turned around looked at Kendra and said "OH YEA!!! and all I could hear from her was "OH NO!!! THERE IS NO ROOM IN THE CAR!! Of course to my defense I said "BUT THERE IN BOXES, THEY WILL FIT!! well It didn't take long to be banned from that room. lol

Last stop was at the Wicks Pie Company, I went in and got John a black raspberry pie, one of his favorites. We went on to Berne and stopped at the cement statue place but they were already closed so we looked at their displays out side.

We drove around Berne hoping we would come across a store that was open still, it was just after 5 p.m. but like most small towns they close up at 5 p.m. So we are planning a Berne trip some afternoon later this summer. All in all we had a great time, of course lots of laughing and cutting up but that is us, it wouldn't be right if we didn't. So there you have it, our road trip 2019. So if your ever that way stop in, its a neat little county. Have a great week.
