Thought for the Week: Life can be only understood backwards, but it must be lived forwards.

"A CHRISTMAS CAROL" CONTINUES AT THE PULSE

Performances of the Charles Dickens holiday classic "A Christmas Carol" will continue Thursday-Saturday evenings November 30-December 9 at the Pulse Opera House. Look for the school buses in town on Thursday and Friday as 750 students from Salamonie, Crestview, Riverview, Southern Wells, Community Christian (Bluffton) and Tim Johnson Academy (Fort Wayne) will attend special daytime performances. Cast and crew members have taken time off from work and school to make these special school performances possible.

The lobby opens at 7:00 p.m. and features trees decorated by local businesses and individuals, lattes and hot chocolate by Lattes to You! and freshly baked goods by Treva Flemming. The box office opens at 7:30 p.m. and the show starts at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $12 for general admission and $5 for children 12 and under, but those bringing items for the food pantry can receive $2 off the price of admission. Reservations can be made online at www.pulseoperahouse.org or by calling (260) 375-7017.

SANTA TO VISIT

MarkleBank's Warren Office will have a special visitor this Saturday, December 2. Santa will be on hand from 9:00 to 11:30 a.m. to greet visitors. Bring the kids over to see Santa at 450 Bennett Drive in Warren. For more information, call 375-4550 or 888-758-3111.

DRAMATIC MUSICAL

The Dillman U.B. Church will be presenting a dramatic musical for Christmas, entitled One Quiet Night. The program will be Sunday, December 10 at both the 8:15 and the 10:30 worship services. The Dillman Sanctuary Choir and the Drama Department will be in-involved in this program. In typical Dillman fashion, you will both laugh and cry at this story. It will show us that we must be still and know that He is God or we might have a "Happy Holiday" and yet miss Christmas.

The drama will be directed by Bridget Schweikhardt and Amy Palmer and the Choir will be directed by Linda Walters.

Please come and join us at Dillman Church, 8888S 1100W-90 Warren, IN. For more information, please call the church at 260-375-2779. Everyone will be welcome to attend.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

Are you caught up in preparations for Christmas? The combined choirs of Warren and Jefferson Center United Methodist Churches invite you to consider the real meaning of the season as they present a Christmas cantata, "Ready for Christmas?", on December 17 at 2:00 p.m. in the Applegate Chapel at Heritage Pointe in Warren. The choir is under the direction of Myrna Neff. The public is invited to attend. Are you ready?

ALZHEIMER'S SUPPORT

We will join together for the Alzheimer's Support Group on Tuesday, December 12th at 2:00 p.m. in the 1A Activity Room of Heritage Pointe.

Our featured speaker will be psychologist, Dr. Derek Paris. Dr. Paris will discuss the potential stresses that may occur throughout the upcoming Holiday season as your family decides how best to involve your loved one in the festivities.

You may direct any questions regarding this group to the Social Service Department of Heritage Pointe at 260/375-2201 ex. 243.

NEW OFFICERS

There have been several changes in pastors in the Warren area and three of those were officers of the Warren Area Ministerial Association (WAMA), so a meeting was called to select new officers. The following were chosen: Kathy Newton, new pastor of the Jefferson Center UMC, Secretary; Mike Malone, pastor of Warren UMC, Treasurer; Bob Bothast, associate pastor of Warren 1st Baptist, Vice President and Gerald Moreland, pastor of Warren Church of Christ, President.

WAMA exists to help meet the needs of local folks as well as those passing through who have special & temporary needs. We also sponsor a scholarship for local students graduating from high school and going on to college. We provide special programs and services during the course of the year to bring our community and churches together in worship and fellowship. For more information you may call 375-3022 or email us at wcc@citiznet.com. Have a wonderful Christmas as we all prepare for a brighter New Year.

IN CASE YOU WERE INTERESTED

On October 29, Gerald Moreland challenged the Warren Church of Christ to have 250 in worship to celebrate the 3rd anniversary of his call to come to Warren to be their minister. He said he would "tithe that attendance" and ride his old bike home that day (which he thought was about 25 miles (10%) from SR 5 up to SR 224 in Huntington and then on to his home in Markle). 206 were in attendance but he decided to ride home anyway. An amazing thing happened!!! The distance was actually 20.6 miles and it took him 2:06 hours and minutes to do it (10% in every way) and in the year 2006! Youth minister, Todd Winkler, and member Dustin Fortney, rode their high speed bikes with him. Todd said Gerald probably peddled 206 times more with that old bike than we did! It was a fun day and a great way to celebrate his ministry at the growing downtown church in Warren.

GIFTS PRESENTED

The Warren Church of Christ hosted an area men and boys breakfast on October 14 which featured Huntington University's Head Basketball Coach Steve Platt and 5 of his upper class players. After a challenging and inspirational message by the coach an offering was received to give to the HU team's choice of a mission they wanted to support. $2,000 was collected and divided to be given to Love, INC. and McKenzie's Hope, both Huntington based missions. A presentation of the $1,000 checks was made by Gerald Moreland, representing the Warren church, at the half time of the HU Ness Bros. Hall of Fame Classic game November 17. Accepting and representing McKenzie's Hope was board member Brooks Feters and accepting and representing Love, INC. was Director Sandy Hartle. Thank you to all the area men and boys who gave and the Warren church for their donations to these worthy missions. Don't forget to watch and cheer on the National Runner-Up Champion HU Forresters as they make a bid to return to Branson, MO next March to make another run for the national title. They're off to a great start!

NATIVITY & CANTATA

The Warren Church of Christ invites the public to come see our annual Live Nativity at the corner of 3rd and Warren Sts. in historic downtown Warren on Friday, December 8 and Saturday, December 9th from 6:00-8:00 PM each evening. Hot chocolate and cookies will be served after viewing the scenes. You can drive by or get out and watch all the scenes unfold before you eyes. Afterwards you'll have time to go to the Pulse Opera House and take in "The Christmas Carol" at 8:00 PM

On Sunday, December 17th, the church's 30 voice Christmas Choir will present their cantata and drama "Joyful & Triumphant" during their morning worship service at 9:30 AM. If you don't have a church home we would love to have you join in this special presentation and worship experience. Many special will be featured and it is under the direction of Betty Yoder. Gerald Moreland, minister will conclude with a challenge and message.

THANK YOU

The Huntington County chapter of the American Red Cross would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You!" to everyone who supports our mission. We frequently receive thanks from the people we serve, but without the support of our community it would not be possible.

So to everyone who has ever given blood, volunteered their time, or donated money to the Red Cross or the United Way, Thank You!

TO THE CONSTANT COMPLAINER AT THE WARREN TOWN COUNCIL MEETINGS:

To the party's who incessantly whine about my property on College street, I have a few things to say. Please learn the definition of the word "TRUTH". Since you don't seem too concerned with accuracy while you waste everyone's time with your constant complaints, I will set the record straight. My semi is not "often parked the wrong way". The fact is that the tractor has been parked facing traffic on only very limited occasions and even then, there is plenty of room to get by assuming that you are willing to hang up your phone and pay attention to your driving. You remain silent on all of the other traffic obstructions that exist all around town. (Their locations are irrelevant since you seem to be fixated on just this one). As for repairs being performed on the truck this is not now nor has it ever been illegal. Anytime that you wish to begin paying for the repairs on my truck they may be performed at the place of your choice provided that place has the skill and equipment to perform the work. And the truck does NOT block traffic on the rare occasion it's parked there. If you insist on opening your mouth then back it up with your cash. To end this portion of our discussion I should point out that everything that you have was brought to this town by truck. Those trucks have to park somewhere, and mine gets parked at my house on the weekends when I am at home. Had you ever had the spine to talk to me about this, I would have been happy to explain this to you. As for the way my property is kept, that is none of your business. You seem to have nothing better to do than mind everyone else's business. Either buy the property and keep it the way that you want or get a life. Either way, stop wasting everyone's time just because you have too much of it on your hands.

AREA NEWS

HOLIDAY POPS

Northeastern Indiana's most popular and beloved holiday event returns to Huntington University at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 10 when the Fort Wayne Philharmonic goes on tour throughout northern Indiana.

Join Associate Conductor Bradley Thachuk and guest vocalist Tony Didier as they lead the Philharmonic in a colorful presentation of holiday music.

The program, consisting of popular and classical holiday music includes traditional favorites like "Sleigh Ride," "White Christmas," "Winter Wonderland," and other tunes including "The Skater's Waltz" and the "Concert Suite" from "Polar Express."

Guest vocalist Tony Didier returns to the stage with the Fort Wayne Philharmonic after a recent stint as a guest vocalist with the orchestra in a Pops concert featuring Boots Randolph, singing "Mack the Knife" and "Mona Lisa." More recently, Didier accompanied the orchestra in September 2006 for "Classics Rock," the first unplugged concert of the 2006-2007 season. During the day, Didier makes his living teaching ballroom dancing at American Style Ballroom.

Tickets are available by calling Huntington University's Merillat Centre for the Arts Box Office at (260) 359-4261. Ticket prices are $17-$21 for reserved seating, $5 for Huntington University students, discounted by $2 for students 13 and older as well as seniors, and half price for students 12 and younger. This event will be held in the Zurcher Auditorium in the Merillat Centre for the Arts.

This concert was underwritten by Myers Funeral Home, Northeast Indiana Public Radio WBOI/WBNI and MarkleBank.

The Philharmonic Holiday Pops is a concert tradition begun by the orchestra in 1985 with a single performance that still includes an audience sing-a-long and a selection of family holiday music that transcends all religions. Today, the orchestra performs this holiday masterpiece four times at the Embassy Theatre in Fort Wayne and in nine surrounding communities.

Now performing its 62nd season, the Fort Wayne Philharmonic with Music Director Edvard Tchivzhel is a member of the American Symphony Orchestra League and a funded member of Arts United of Greater Fort Wayne, the Indiana Arts Commission and National Endowment for the Arts. For additional information, visit www.fortwaynepilharmonic.com.

LOOKING FOR THE PERFECT GIFT?

How About a Home Emergency Supply Kit?

The Indiana Department of Homeland Security is encouraging Hoosiers to consider giving home Emergency Supply Kits as gifts to their friends and relatives during this holiday season.

"We know that the ability of individuals and families to be self-sustaining for at least three days would be vital during the response to a large scale disaster or emergency," said Indiana Department of Homeland Security Executive Director Eric Dietz. "Emergency Supply Kits in households are an important part of this preparedness. If you know of a family or individual that does not already have an emergency supply kit, this would be a great gift idea."

An Emergency Supply Kit is a collection of basic supplies that are stored together in case of an emergency.

Recommended items to include in a basic Emergency Supply Kit include:

Water: One gallon per person per day for at least three days, for drinking and sanitation.

Food: At least a three-day supply of non-perishable food items. If items are canned, a can opener will also be needed.

Battery powered radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert and extra batteries for both.

Flashlight and extra batteries.

First aid kit.

Whistle to signal for help.

Dust mask to help filter contaminated air, and plastic sheeting and duct tape to shelter-in-place.

Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties for personal sanitation.

Wrench or pliers to turn off utilities.

Local maps.

Other items such as medicines, extra clothing and pet care items might also be included in a kit. The items should be stored together in a container. Even if you cannot assemble all of the items as part of your gift, you can purchase the container and some of the items to at least help get the kit started. You can then include a printout of other items that can be included in the kit. This information, including a printable checklist, can be found on the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's official preparedness Website, at www.ready.gov.

When David Finkle bought the mill it was in good condition and was doing a profitable business. The product manufactured from the mill was always excellent. Mr. Finkle worked tirelessly at the mill and his sons Henry, John, and Jacob grew up working in the mill and eventually became millers like their father. Henry owned a mill in Pennsylvania, while John and Jacob became partners with their father on the Salamonie River. The firm had become David Finkle and Sons and later the sons inherited the mill.

In the 1913 flood, the McCoy mill was extensively damaged and was no longer used. Around 1919 the McCoy mill was sold, disassembled and floated downstream. The timbers and material were used to construct the five story building that became known in later years as "Salamonie Mill." The company reorganized in 1921 and became the Finkle Milling Company. This mill was state of the art, for its time, utilizing water turbines that operated in horizontal position rather than the traditional vertical one.

The company was not too successful the first few years and the mill was passed into ownership by Milton Anderson who kept it until he sold to Thomas Nutter in 1930. Nutter ran the mill for only a few months and leased it to Fred Clark and later sold it to Emery Smyth in 1932. In 1947 James Arthur McDaniel and LaMonine McDaniel became owners and incorporated the mill as Salamonie Mills, Inc. From 1955 to 1970 there was many improvements and additions made to the mill.

On April 12, 1976 Warren lost a well known landmark. A disastrous fire destroyed the five story wooden structure known as Salamonie Mill. The fire was discovered at six in the morning and by the time the firefighters got there it was fully ablaze and there was nothing they could do to save the structure. A new feed mill was built on the same basic foundation and has been taking care of the farmers needs ever since.

TURKEY TROT

The second annual Turkey Trot 5K run and Family Fun Walk took place Thanksgiving morning at McDonald's in Huntington. The event had 109 participants in the run, and 44 participants in the fun walk.

Ronald McDonald started runners out at 8:00 AM at McDonalds on 60 Home Street in Huntington, and the runners ran past Kids Kampus childcare center, through Huntington University, turned around at Parkview Huntington Hospital, and returned to McDonald's. The staff of McDonald's provided all participants and volunteers with breakfast after the race and walk. Over 25 people volunteered their time for this event.

Fifty-dollar cash prizes were provided to the top winners in each age group, and trophies, provided by Custom Craft were awarded to the top three finishers in each age

ATTITUDES ARE EVERYTHING

by The FlyLady, Marla Cilley
Our attitudes are everything! Yes I know that you don't believe me, but what we think about we bring about! We have to look at what we are doing to ourselves and our families with our attitudes!

When we whine and say no one ever helps around here, then that is just what you are asking for and guess what, you will get it!

When we feel pitiful, with that "don't care" or "I can't" attitude then we reflect that in our appearance.

Now here is the big one! When we act poor we will be poor! I am not saying to go out and spend thousands of dollars, it is an "Ole poor me" attitude that makes us save things and hoard stuff.

There is another attitude that hits us all hard. You can make yourself sick with your attitude. The mind is a strange machine! If you think it is so, your wish will be granted. Whether you are actually sick or not! The good part about this is that we can refuse to be sick and it will help us get better too!

What about the anorexic woman who weighs 85 pounds. When she sees herself in the mirror, she sees fat. She can't help it. Then there are the people that will never have a clean home because one thing is out of place means the whole house is dirty. Then there are those of us that don't think we have time to clean it like our mothers did, so we do nothing!

How about the "I don't have enough time" attitude? Guess what you won't, if you don't stop thinking this way!

Then there is the "I'm so stupid" attitude; you are not, but you say this to yourself more times than I want to know about. Hey it has even come out of your mouths in front of your babies. What does that tell them about how you love yourself?

Our attitudes are everything. We have been making ourselves sick! The guilt, stress, self-defeating attitudes, negativity, perfectionism, martyrdom, and anger are helping to create illness and discomfort in our lives.

I know we are all going to die one day. Death is part of living! But why can't we live our lives to the fullest by letting go of this stress, guilt, anger, perfectionism, martyrdom and those other negative behaviors. We deserve to be happy and when you get rid of this negativity, guess what is left: Joy and contentment.

We all know how to clean, we just don't know when to get up and move! That is what I do; motivate you to get off your franny and do something. I fill your head with an attitude adjusting essay so you will see how your negative attitudes are keeping you from FLYing! If I can do this one thing, your home will come together and before you know it you will be loving yourself more than you ever thought possible. If the truth be known, you never knew there was a lack of love that caused all this CHAOS. You just thought you were lazy! Well you are not!

When you hear those self-deprecating words come out of your mouth and even in your head; stop

SOUTHERN WELLS BAND MEMBERS HONORED

Five Southern Wells students from 7-9th grade were selected to participate in the Indiana Bandmasters Association All Region Band. These Southern Wells students were selected to participate in the group that included students from 22 different band programs. Over 200 students applied to be a part of this group. 100 musicians were selected to participate. The Students from Southern Wells were Emily Oswalt, Justin Perry, Zack Doepker, David Haigh, and Quaid Zoda.

The band rehearsed from 9 AM – 4 PM on Saturday, November 18, 2006 at Winchester Community HS under guest director Jim Jones. Mr. Jones is the director of bands at Heritage Hills High School in Lincoln City, IN. Several participating schools' directors including Southern Wells band director Mike Haigh assisted him during the day's rehearsal and with sectionals. The following day on the 19th, the students presented a free concert displaying their previous day's work. The concert featured a world premier of a piece titled "Voice, Conversation, and Blues" by Lissa Fleming May. This piece was commissioned by the IBA for premier at each of the 12 sites hosting All-Region Band weekends.

Mr. Haigh was excited that several of his students chose to apply and participate in this opportunity to play alongside so many talented musicians. The students bring back a different perspective of what band can be. The experience provides a boost to the program locally.

Mr. Haigh is thankful for the parental support displayed by the parents of these and many other SW band members.

right then and there and turn them into positive affirmations. First delete the ugly words by saying Delete, I didn't mean that, I take that back. I refuse to let you beat me up!!! Then say the positive phrase 7 times out loud!!! I can do, I am strong..!

It took me a long time to really start believing myself when I said to me, "I love myself!" Slowly it will start to become part of you if you will continue to say the words to yourself. What we think about we bring about! It takes time. I'd say about nine months of giving birth to a new you! It is just like with your routines; they didn't happen over night! Slowing and one babystep at a time you began replacing your ineffective habits with new efficient ways of living and loving!

It all starts with knowing what we are doing to ourselves. When we know we can change!

PUMPKIN IN THE KITCHEN

by The Dinner Diva, Leanne Ely It's Pumpkin Time!! I absolutely ADORE pumpkins and this time of year... yay! But did you know that besides the glorious beauty of these great big squash (yes, they are a type of winter squash), they are also massively nutritious? You could ostensibly eat the big old pumpkin you bought your kids to carve—or not. The big guys are rather stringy, the smaller sugar pumpkins, the kind used to make pies, are better. But why go to all that trouble? I say forget it—what a colossal mess! Life is too short for that kind of gourd surgery. Why not just get 100% pumpkin in a can and call it a day? That's easy button easy and it won't bend your budget out of place either.

What to do with that canned pumpkin, you say? Well, you can make a delicious cream of pumpkin soup, add some pumpkin puree to your beef stew or chili (really—it's good, try about 1/2 cup—just mix it right in) or try my absolutely delicious pumpkin bread recipe.

How ever you get your pumpkin, just make sure you get it. Pumpkin is chocked full of phytonutrients, magnesium, potassium and vitamin C. Pumpkin is one of nature's best sources of beta carotene - you can tell by the bright orange color.

Here's the pumpkin soup and pumpkin bread recipes—enjoy!

Smashing Pumpkin Soup
(from Saving Dinner by Leanne Ely-Ballantine)

Serves 6
1 onion — chopped
1 tablespoon olive oil
4 cups chicken broth
2 cups pumpkin puree
3/4 cup green onions — chopped
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
2 cups milk
salt and pepper — to taste
In a soup pot, heat oil over medium high heat and saute onions. Cook till very soft and add remaining ingredients, except milk. Cook uncovered for 15 minutes. Add milk and continue to cook (but not boil—it will break) for another 5 minutes.

Per Serving: 131 Calories; 6g Fat (41.3% calories from fat); 7g Protein; 13g Carbohydrate; 3g Dietary Fiber; 11mg Cholesterol; 553mg Sodium. Exchanges: 0 Grain (Starch); 1/2 Lean Meat; 1 1/2 Vegetable; 1/2 Non-Fat Milk; 1 Fat.

SERVING SUGGESTIONS: A huge green salad and whole grain rolls is all you need.

Pumpkin Bread
1/2 cup honey
1 cup canned pumpkin puree (aka 100% pumpkin; NOT pumpkin pie filling)

1/4 cup safflower oil
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups whole wheat pastry flour

1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans
2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon salt
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly grease an 8" or 9" loaf pan. In a large bowl, blend honey, pumpkin, oil, vanilla and eggs. Stir in remaining ingredients. Pour into prepared loaf pan. Bake 50 to 60 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes. Loosen sides of loaf from pan; remove from pan. Cool completely on wire rack before slicing. Makes one 12-slice loaf. Per slice serving: 116 calories, 5g fat, 2g protein, 16g carbohydrate, 4g fiber, 16mg cholesterol, and 69mg sodium.
