Thought for the Week: Let no man pull you low enough to hate him. Martin Luther King Jr.

BRUBAKER DONATES

Karing for Kids has received a $2,500 donation from Huntington County farmer Rick Brubaker and America's Farmers Grow Communities, sponsored by the Monsanto Fund. The donation will help the organization provide school supplies, clothing and Christmas gifts to families in Huntington and Wells Counties.

Karing for Kids operates three projects: The Backpack Project, Jennifer's Closet, and the Christmas Angel Tree Project. In 2014, the organization provided assistance for 1,775 individuals in the region.

"They help kids and families throughout the community," Brubaker said. "My wife Rhonda and I really like what they do throughout the year to help those who need it."

"We had one of our best years in 2014," President Rhonda O'Reilly said. "We were able to help more children and families than we ever have before. We are extremely happy about this wonderful donation."

For five years, America's Farmers Grow Communities has collaborated with farmers to donate over $16.5 million to over 7,300 community organizations across rural America. This year winning farmers will direct another $3.3 million to nonprofits to help fight rural hunger, purchase life-saving fire and EMS equipment, support ag youth leadership programs, buy much needed classroom resources, and so much more.

America's Farmers Grow Communities is part of the America's Farmers initiative. Since 2010, the America's Farmers campaign and programs have advocated on behalf of farmers and their efforts to meet society's needs through agriculture. Today, consumers are more interested than ever in agriculture and how food is grown. Consider joining the conversation and helping to raise awareness about agriculture. Learn more at FoodDialogues.com.

A sister program in the America's Farmers effort, Grow Rural Education, is currently in its farmer nomination phase. Farmers interested in supporting math and science education in their communities should visit www.GrowRuralEducation.com from now through April 1 to learn how.

FORD RETIRED

After 30 years on the Warren Volunteer Fire Department, Tim Ford has retired. During his 30 years he has served as chief, captain, safety officer and secretary-treasurer. In addition to those positions, it doesn't reflect the countless hours that he has contributed in many other capacities during his tenure.

The members of the department thank him for his service and camaraderie. If you see him, give him a big thank you for a job well done.

WBSL SIGN-UPS

The Warren Baseball and Softball League is preparing for the upcoming 2015 season which will be starting with the signups coming out the last week of February. As usual, the signups will be in the Warren Weekly every week through March when signups will end. They will also be available at HNHS and Southern Wells school offices, on the WBSL Facebook page, and the Warren Post Office. See Page 8 for the registration form.

The WBSL board has decided on a couple of changes this year to the league....we had been asked by a few parents the last few years to allow 7 year olds to play in the Tower Leagues. This season we have decided to let them play in the American Boy's Little League, which will now be 7-10, and girls in the Junior Girls softball league 12 and under. If we get enough girls to split the league as we did several years ago with the boys we will make them 2 leagues as well. We have been watching our Little Leagues the past few years and we have found our division of the league works very well. For those of you who do not know, our American Little League is modeled after a Homestead program for the same age group and is a unique combination of Little League and Coaches Pitch. The boys are allowed 6 or 7 years of Little League before moving up to Pony League because after the American league the boys advance to the National Little League which is 11-13 before going on to Pony when they are 14-17. We have found the younger boys are learning to pitch, catch and hit much better with the added years in the league. Likewise, the boys are much more prepared to move up to Pony and are a better quality of players as well. Parents please remember the boys can play in our league and the Civic Center league as well because we play on different nights, girls however, will have to choose one league or the other. Along these same lines, we have also done away with the rule concerning playing in the Huntington County leagues...you can now play in both leagues as long as they DO NOT play on the same nights.

Our entry fee for all leagues will be $30.00 once again with no fundraising. For your $30.00 your child will get 12 regular season games with double elimination tournaments. All 3 younger leagues will receive 1st & 2nd place trophies as well as runner up trophies for the other teams. Pony League and Senior girls (13-17) will get 1st & 2nd place trophies only. We also have an excess insurance policy for the kids in the awful event your child is injured, something that most leagues do not carry. We have a WBSL Facebook page for anyone who has not seen it....you can search Warren Baseball/

Softball and you DO NOT have to have a Facebook to look at the page. There are hundreds of pictures of the kids on it and will have rules, schedules, up to the minute rain-out info as well as other special announcements as the season progresses. There are likewise hundreds of pictures of our Adult Co-ed Softball players (which funds the kids leagues) and pictures from our annual carnival as well. Watch for the signups to come out soon and if anyone has any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact us through the Facebook page or to e-mail wbleague@citiznet.com and we would be happy to help.

Anxious to spend another fun and exciting season with you and your children! See you at the park.

FREEDOM MUST NEVER BE COMPROMISED

by Bryan Golden

"America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves."
 — Abraham Lincoln

Freedom is a foundation of life. When freedom is compromised, suffering and misery follow. This indisputable fact has been demonstrated endlessly throughout history. Freedom compromised is freedom lost.

In politics, compromise is touted as a requirement for progress. However, there is no legitimate justification to ever compromise freedom. Compromising freedom empowers the enemies of freedom, including dictators, tyrants, oppressors, and the power hungry. Compromising freedom erodes the wellbeing of a country's population.

To fully understand the devastating impact compromise has on freedom, consider the following examples. How would you react if someone wanted to force you out of your home so they could live there instead? Would you accept a compromise where they take over only half of your home? Would you be willing to give them just one or two rooms as a compromise if they allowed you to live in the remaining space?

Suppose you had saved $10,000 over several years. One day you receive a phone call from someone demanding you give them your entire savings. Would you offer them $5,000 as a compromise in return for being able to keep the remaining $5,000?

As another example, you have four wonderful children. You are approached by someone who claims it's not fair for you have four children while there are so many childless couples. You are then asked how many of your children are you willing to give up as a compromise? Would you be willing to give up just one? After all, you'll still have three remaining children which should be more than enough for your needs.

Of course you wouldn't allow someone to take over part of your home, steal your savings, or abduct any of your children. So why would you let any person, group, or government compromise your freedom by taking any portion of it away?

Human history has been characterized by tyrannical oppression. The founding of America, based on each individual's unalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, was the first time a country was established exclusively on freedom.

Freedom is your right. It's not a commodity granted to you by someone else. Yet, freedom can be compromised by the malicious actions of others. The typical approach to confiscating your freedom is to start small by taking seemingly inconsequential freedoms under the guise of fairness, safety, or security. Then, piece by piece your freedoms are eroded until they cease to exist.

The standard assertion made by the power hungry is that they know what is best for your wellbeing. These people claim to be the only ones in the unique position of also knowing what is in the best interest of society. You are told you lack the necessary intelligence,

CATTLE ID DAY

The Wells County 4-H Beef and Dairy Beef Identification Day will be held Saturday, February 28, 2015, 9 AM - 11 AM. The event will take place at the Wells County 4-H Park Multi-Purpose Arena located behind the Horse Barn.

All beef steers, dairy beef steers, and market heifers must be ear tagged and weighed to be eligible to show at the 2015 Wells County 4-H Fair, July 11-16.

Commercial heifers (non-registered) will also be ear tagged so they may be exhibited.

Registered heifers will be ear tagged and they will also need a tattoo.

Two ear tags will be used this year. One will be a county tag specific for Wells County and the other will be a RFID (Radio Frequency Identification) tag provided by the state. These tags can be read at livestock shows with a scanner at a distance of 1-4 feet.

4-H members will receive at the ID Day a worksheet with information for them to enter the animal identification into their 4-H Online account. This will take the place of the paper form which was used in previous years. 4-H members should enter this information by March 16th.

Members who do not have internet access may stop by the County Extension Office to be entered into the system.

Members who participated in the Dairy Feeder Steer Calf project last year may enroll their animals in the Dairy Beef Project. These animals will exhibit in a separate show at the 4-H Fair.

Market animals will also be weighed for the Rate of Gain Contest. In 2014 Lauren Bales exhibited the Champion Beef Rate of Gain animal with ADG (Average Daily Gain) of 3.5 lbs. Reserve Champion was exhibited by Cole Banter with an ADG of 3.46 lbs.

In the Dairy Beef project, the Champion Rate of Gain was exhibited by Timber Tucker with ADG of 3.97. The Reserve Champion was exhibited by Tristan Bauermeister with a 3.9 ADG.

Youth may also enter a calf in the Beef Starter Class. This special class is for beef calves born after January 1 and up until June 1, 2015.

This year's 4-H Fair will be held July 11-16 at the 4-H Park in Bluffton.

For more information about 4-H or the 4-H Beef/Dairy Beef Projects, contact the Wells County Office of the Purdue Cooperative Extension Service, 1240 4-H Park Road, Bluffton, 260-824-6412, or Beef Superintendent John Jacobs, 260-273-8235 or Dairy Beef Superintendent Karl Steiner, 260-346-2366.

BE AN EVERY DAY HERO

In honor of Red Cross Month in March, the American Red Cross encourages people to uncover their inner hero and donate blood or platelets, volunteer their time or sign up to organize a blood drive.

Since 1943, every president has designated March as Red Cross Month to recognize how the Red Cross helps people down the street and across the country.

"The everyday heroes are those who donate blood, volunteer, take a lifesaving class, host a blood drive or make a financial contribution to help neighbors here in the Indiana-Ohio region and across the nation," said Sharyn Whitman, Chief Executive Officer of the Indiana-Ohio Blood Services Region. "We thank and honor these everyday heroes who support the Red Cross."

The Red Cross couldn't fulfill its mission without people like Edward Parag of New Haven, Indiana who recently donated platelets for the 100th time, Howard Shobe of Van Wert, Ohio who recently made his 200th platelet donation, or Doug Gregory of Fort Wayne, Indiana who recently made his 500th platelet

People also can become everyday heroes by hosting a SleevesUp virtual blood drive or creating a team via the Blood Donor App. SleevesUp provides an easy way for Red Cross supporters to encourage those in their networks to give blood or platelets to honor someone's life, celebrate a special occasion or simply bring people together to help save lives. Campaigns can be created online at redcrossblood.org/SleevesUp.

The Blood Donor App allows individuals to find a local blood or platelet donation opportunity, schedule appointments and track their donation history. Plus, it lets users create teams and recruit friends and family to roll up a sleeve with them. The Blood Donor App is available for download by texting BLOODAPP to 90999 or by visiting redcrossblood.org/BloodApp.

"It doesn't take superpowers to be a hero for a patient in need - just a little time," added Whitman. Blood donors with all blood types, particularly O negative, A negative and B negative, and platelet donors are encouraged to make an appointment to give.

How to donate blood
Simply download the American Red Cross Blood Donor App, visit redcrossblood.org or call 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) to make an appointment or for more information. All blood types are needed to ensure a reliable supply for patients. A blood donor card or driver's license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Individuals who are 17 years of age (16 with parental consent in some states), weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood. High school students and other donors 18 years of age and younger also have to meet certain height and weight requirements.

IPRC RESULTS

In 2014, the Indiana Prevention Resource Center conducted the 24th Annual Survey of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Use by Indiana Children and Adolescents. Significant findings for Indiana include:

- Monthly heroin use among 12th graders is more than twice as high as the national rate;
- Methamphetamine use by 12th graders remains above the national rate;
- Indiana has the second highest prevalence rate of high school students who report they ever took prescription drugs without a doctor's prescription (21.4%), as compared to the nationwide rate of 20.7%;
- Monthly marijuana use remained about same as last year; over 7% of Indiana's 8th graders and almost 18% of 12th graders used marijuana in the past 30 days. Previously, there was a downward trend; and
- Cigarettes, over-the-counter drugs, prescription drugs, and alcohol were used primarily by females in Grades 7-12 in one or more of the time periods surveyed.

There is good news, however. In the Northeast Region, many of our usage rates are at or below state averages. In addition, there are several instances in which our rates are significantly lower than state rates. Those rates include:

- Binge drinking among 6th graders, 2.6% in our region versus 5.4% statewide;
- Alcohol consumption, binge drinking, and marijuana usage by 8th graders are each at about half of the state rate;
- For 11th graders, alcohol consumption is 25.8% statewide and 20.5% for our region, and marijuana usage is 15.8% statewide versus 8.3% in our region; and
- Alcohol consumption by 12th graders, 27.5% students in our region reported consuming alcohol as compared to 33.9% in Indiana.

The survey indicated that family members were the primary source of alcohol for youth in Grades 6 to 9. The higher the grade level, the more likely the student was to report that someone bought it for him or her, or they received it from a person aged 21 or older. These results suggest that youth drinking could be reduced if parents and family members better understood the risk of harm that alcohol presents, and prevented youth from accessing alcohol kept in the home.

Although many usage rates are declining, prevention efforts need to continue. Research shows that the younger a person is when he or she begins using alcohol, the more likely the person is to experience alcohol dependence and abuse. Those who began drinking before age 14 were more likely to have alcohol dependence later in life. The survey data shows an average age of first use of substances ranges from 12 to 14 years, where typically cigarettes are first, then alcohol, followed by marijuana. If youth perceive that their peers or parents will disapprove, they are far less likely to use substances. Frequent discussions between parents and their children are key. Remember, parents are the greatest influence on their kids' attitudes and behaviors.

Together, we can reduce the use of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs.

NOW IS THE TIME

Beat cabin fever and help wildlife by tackling habitat improvement projects this winter.

Late winter is the best time to pursue many wildlife habitat projects. The ground is often dry or frozen, the timing prevents conflicts with nesting wildlife in spring, and managing wooded and shrubby areas is easier to do before leaves emerge and sap flows.

Some winter habitat management suggestions follow.

— Conduct woodland edge enhancement and fencerow rejuvenation. Winter is the best time to cut brush, limbs and trees for "feathering" edges between mature woodlands and grasslands, wetlands or agricultural areas.

— Create forest openings. Forest openings benefit numerous wildlife species, and now is the best time to make such openings.

— Make brush piles. Brush piles create escape-cover for game birds, songbirds, small mammals, and many other forms of wildlife. Piles placed close to transitional areas between habitat types provide increased benefits.

— Build and hang nesting boxes. Winter is a great time of year to buy or build nesting boxes and strategically place them.

— Clean and maintain nesting boxes. If you already have nesting boxes, clean them to prepare them for spring use.

— Frost seed. Winter soil conditions are optimal for planting small seeds. Common frost-seeding species include introduced legumes such as clovers, alfalfa and birdsfoot trefoil. Frost seeding also can be effective for warm-season grasses, wildflowers and food plots.

— Employ sodium supplementation: Rabbits are one of many mammals that benefit from sodium supplementation. Crush salt blocks and distribute the fragments along field borders and habitat edges. Late winter and early spring is when mammals benefit most from sodium supplementation. Sodium supplementation is not to be confused with using baits, lures or attractants while hunting, which is illegal.

Further information on species and habitat is at wildlife.IN.gov/2352.htm under "Landowner Assistance." You may also contact your district wildlife biologist, listed at wildlife.IN.gov/fishwild/2716.htm.

SURVIVING SOCIAL MEDIA

MARION, Ind. — Social media has become a strong influence upon today's children and teenagers. It can also have a profound impact on young lives. A study published by the American Academy of Pediatrics found the use of social media sites such as Facebook, Twitter and Instagram can increase the likelihood that a teenager will develop depression or anxiety.

The issue is so critical that Indiana Youth Institute (IYI) President and CEO Bill Stanczykiewicz recently addressed the problem in the agency's December op-ed newspaper column. New sites and apps are popping up every day. But how can adults ask young people to use social media responsibly when they may not be fully informed themselves?

IYI is hosting a forum that will feature Brock Rose, owner and co-founder of Rose & Rose Associates. Brock will share his knowledge of today's popular social media sites and apps. Parents, social workers, educators and others who work with youth will learn information to help monitor and guide the children and teens in their lives when it comes to using social media safely.

The forum will run from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Wednesday, March 4 at the Marion Public Library at 600 S. Washington St., Marion, 46953. Attendees should park at the east side entrance to access the Touchstone Energy Center Community Room.

As part of IYI's Youth Worker Café program, the forum and lunch are free, but reservations are required. RSVP by Tuesday, March 3 by clicking on this link. If you have trouble with the link please contact IYI Statewide Outreach Manager Debbie Jones at djones@iyi.org.

Youth Worker Cafés are designed to bring together local youth workers to build relationships and inspire collaborations that will benefit children. This Youth Worker Café is made possible by the collaborative efforts of Family Service Society, Inc. and IYI.

For more information on the Youth Worker Café, contact IYI East Central Indiana Outreach Manager Alison Palmer at apalmer@iyi.org.

COOKIE WEEKEND

This February 27 through March 1, Girl Scouts of Northern Indiana – Michiana (GSNI-M) along with its sister councils across the country, will participate in National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend, a celebration of all the fun and excitement girls have selling Girl Scout Cookies. National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend will give girls from GSNI-M a chance to show off their cookie-selling skills by participating in booth and door-to-door sales throughout the 22 counties GSNI-M serves.

National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend will also give GSNI-M an opportunity to highlight some of its most innovative and successful cookie entrepreneurs and what they plan on doing with their cookie money to benefit their communities. Through the cookie program's "5 Skills," each amazing young #cookieboss develops creative and resourceful ways to sell cookies. And the more cookies girls sell, the more money they have to invest in community service projects, learning experiences, and travel opportunities.

"Girl Scout Cookies are about so much more than a tasty treat," said Sharon Pohly, CEO of GSNI-M. "They are about teaching girls basic business skills and instilling a lifelong sense of civic responsibility that creates leaders. At GSNI-M we have so many amazing girls doing positive things with their cookie money. During National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend we plan on celebrating these stories while helping girls meet their cookie goals for this year."

One hundred percent of the net revenue raised through Girl

Scout Cookie sales in this area stays with GSNI-M and its troops, so customers who purchase Girl Scout Cookies are not only getting a delicious treat—they are also making an important investment in their communities.

"National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend is one of the most exciting events on the Girl Scout calendar," said Anna Maria Chávez, CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA. "It's our opportunity to speak with one unified voice and tell the story of the Girl Scout Cookie Program, and everything it does to help prepare the next generation of female leaders. To help girls unlock their own leadership potential and realize the difference they can make in this world is at the heart of the Girl Scout mission. For nearly a century, our cookie program has been one of the most powerful and successful tools in transforming girls into leaders who make a positive impact on their communities."

foresight, experience, or understanding to provide any meaningful input about your freedom. If you object to your freedoms being compromised, you are maligned and accused of being unreasonable.

When one freedom after another is compromised, before long all of your freedoms will have vanished. Once your freedom is lost, it's virtually impossible to recover. Life without freedom is proven to be filled with strife and despair. This fact is evidenced by the endless stream of people willing to risk their lives fleeing tyrannical regimes around the world.

Freedom is not free and must be constantly cherished and protected. Freedom persists only when good people stand firmly against those who seek to vanquish freedom through deceitful compromise. Your freedom must never be compromised or it will be lost.
