DANCE TALENT SLATED

Three full-size stages will be set up, providing a variety of amateur and professional entertainment at the Festival of the Arts in downtown Warren, IN on May 17. From 10a.m.-5p.m. one of those stages has been booked solid with a variety of dance groups from throughout surrounding communities.

The festival will kickoff with a tag-team of dancers from Huntington and Bluffton. Bev Johnson's School of Dance in Huntington and The Dance Company from Bluffton will showcase school grade talent. The Huntington North Dance Team will also perform within this first 90-minute time slot, from 10-11:30a.m.

Just as festival visitors get their toes tappin', the award-winning Hoppin' Hoosier jump roping team from Huntington will take the stage for a fast-paced half hour, from 11:30-12p.m.

For those who follow dance competitions, the organization from the Playhouse Studio of Dance out of Marion is always held in high regard. This group has not only won several awards, but also tours throughout the nation. This summer, they are slated to perform aboard a Disney cruise sailing to the Bahamas. Plan time in your festival schedule to stop by and catch this group from 12:15-1p.m.

The next half hour will include a performance by the local children from Vicki Middleton's Dance Art Studio in Warren.

Then grab a quick bite from one of the festival vendors or a little something from the Sweet Patch and get back to the dance stage by 2p.m.

The Applejack Cloggers will be in costume and stomping for a full hour. This adult group based in Huntington performs at numerous events, including the Johnny Appleseed Festival in Ft. Wayne. After their performance, members of the clogging group will mingle with audience members.

A crowd-pleasing performance from an adult square dancing group from the Markle area, Scatter 8's is scheduled from 3-4p.m.

The festival begins to wind down with a performance by the talented dancers from the Lautzenheiser Dance Studio in Bluffton. Similar to the other dance schools performing earlier in the day, they will offer audience members a sneak peek of their spring recital numbers.

The final performance on this stage is by a first-year Southern Wells group of jump ropers. Sixty kids who learned how to jump rope in physical education class earlier this school year have put together a routine under the guidance of PE teacher Mike Carter. They presented it at their school carnival a couple weeks ago and received positive feedback from the audience. These Southern Wells Jump rope team will take the stage at 5p.m.

The Festival of the Arts has a day of jam-packed events and activities planned for festival visitors. Whether you enjoy browsing through vendor booths, admiring student and professional artwork, eating homemade sweets, or watching the dance talents of children and adults from around Northeastern Indiana- this is an event not to be missed. Bring your favorite lawn chair; seating near the stage will be limited.

Additional inquiries about the Festival of Arts can be directed to Festival Chair Brady Smekens at [260] 375-3101 or via email at bradysmek@hotmail.com.

The Festival of the Arts is sponsored by the Warren downtown revitalization organization, Our Town.

VIETNAM MEMORIAL WEBSITE

It's been 28 years since the official end of the Vietnam War, 42 years since it's official beginning for the United States. In the course of the 14 years of the war Indiana lost 1,531 young men and women, 16 of them from Huntington County.

Now the Huntington County Veterans' Service Office announces a new addition to their website which honors the Hoosier servicemen and women lost during the war in Vietnam. It also is meant to stand as a tribute and thanks to those who came home alive to their families.

Out of Indiana's 92 counties, 88 of them lost men and women during the war. As of the date of this release 17 counties, including Huntington County, have been completed on the website. The public is invited to check back periodically to the site while it is under construction to see which counties have been added.

Each entry on the website lists the service member's name, branch of service, rank, date of birth, hometown, date of death, place of death and whether the death was hostile (in action against the enemy) or non-hostile.

The website is located at: www.huntington.in.us/county/veterans and click on The Indiana Vietnam Memorial Website.

KUDOS, KICKS & KARATS

DO THE SOLDIERS WEAR BACKWARD FLAGS?

With troops getting a lot of air time during the past weeks, many keen-eyed observers have noticed something strange about the patches on their uniforms.

The flag patches seem to be backward.

To be more specific, the flag patches on each soldier's right shoulder do not follow the convention for displaying Old Glory. The American flag flies so that the blue field, or standard, is at the top, closest to the pole. If carried into battle, as was the practice in ancient times, the flag bearer leads with the stars.

However, if the flag is not affixed to a pole, the standard should be on the top left. Sharp-eyed readers will notice the problem.

If the flag patch on the soldier's right arm were fastened according to convention, the soldier would be rushing into battle with the stripes facing forward. This would never do.

The military thus makes an exception for the display of the flag on the right shoulders of soldiers.

THESE ARE THE REAL KEYS TO PERSONAL SATISFACTION AND HAPPINESS

We've all known people who had everything but weren't happy in spite of it all. If money won't buy happiness, what will? Psychologist Dan Baker, Ph.D., says the connection between money and happiness is nothing but a trap. In his book, What Happy People Know: How the New Science of Happiness Can Change Your Life for the Better (Rodale), he and co-author Cameron Strauth have some worthy answers.

The 12 most important qualities of happiness are love, optimism, courage, a sense of freedom, pro-activity, security, health, spirituality, altruism, perspective, humor, and purpose. These are the things you should make up your mind to achieve.

* Appreciation will make you happy. It is the purest form of love. It is physiologically impossible to be in a state of fear and appreciation at the same time. Appreciation is an antidote to fear.

* The ability to make a choice can govern your perception. Having no choices or options can lead to feelings of helplessness. Anyone can choose the course of their life, but only happy people do it.

* Personal power is the proactive force that gives you control over your feelings and your fate. It involves taking responsibility, taking action, and realizing that your life belongs to you alone, then doing something about it.

* Using your intellect and spirit will help you begin to focus on your strengths and solutions to problems. If you begin to fear, you are focusing on your weaknesses.

* The power of words and stories makes you see the world as you describe it. What you tell yourself about your life eventually comes true. We can tell ourselves healthy stories or horror stories. It's a matter of choice.

FREE WOMEN'S SEMINAR

Perhaps you are a gardener, which your friends admire. Or maybe you love to plan activities and variety is the spice of life. Each of us possesses unique personal gifts, yet maintaining them and creating personal balance can be challenging. That's why Bluffton Regional Medical Center is offering an evening just for women with one purpose in mind ... awareness of personal balance.

On Thursday, May 8, Beverley Toney-Walter Danusis will present Balancing Your Seven Innate Strengths. This program will be at the Bluffton High School Cafetorium, located on Wayne Street. Registration will start at 6 p.m. The inter-active presentation including Q & A, begins at 6:30 and ends at approximately 8:30 p.m.

Danusis will energize participants by creating a new awareness of personal strengths and weaknesses. "The seven innate strengths are patterns of influence that are natural in all women. The full realization of your unique strengths can only come by knowing, ever more deeply, the strengths within you," explains Danusis. "This workshop will allow you to become acquainted with each strength and to utilize their 'muscles' to create a more powerful and fulfilling life."

Danusis is an internationally recognized speaker who teaches on woman's issues and the effects of universal laws in their lives. She maintains recognition as an entrepreneur's businesswomen and is a mother of two. Her published book, "Mirror, Mirror, on the Wall ... who is in there after all?" deals with women's issues regarding body image and universal laws.

This FREE seminar is brought to you by Bluffton Regional Medical Center. To make your reservation for this exciting evening, please call the 24-hour dedicated reservation line at (260) 824-3210, ext. 7004 or toll free (888) 919-3557, ext. 7004.

CHAMBER MINUTES

While enjoying another wonderful lunch catered by The Wagon Wheel Cafe, President Gina Canady opened the April Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. "Thanks were given to all those who worked so diligently to make the Sidney Hurlbert Seminar a great success. Numerous comments were shared regarding the great attendance and much needed "uplifting" event. Chamber hopes that all those who attended were as touched by Sidney as each of us were and look forward to bringing similar events to the Warren community in the future. Don't forget . . . what would Sid say... next time you're in one of those "stressful" situations.

Rosemary Zeller gave the treasurers report and minutes from the March meeting were read by Secretary Vickie Grim.

Gina reminded those businesses who were chosen for the "Business Spotlight" to get their information in as soon as possible. We are excited about bringing more information to the Warren community about area businesses.

Chamber members were asked to purchase yellow ribbons to be put on the trees that line Wayne St. to show support our troops. There was a great response and with the help of PJ's Flower & Gifts all the trees are wearing a brand new yellow ribbon. Thanks Joyce!

Much discussion was held regarding how the Chamber could be of assistance to local families who have loved ones serving in the armed forces. Members are going to compile a list of area servicemen & women and decide what help is most needed on a local level. If you have a loved one serving or know of someone please send names and addresses to: Chamber of Commerce, PO Box 40, Warren, Indiana 46792.

Lillie Nutter announced that Warren once again outdid themselves by contributing generously to the Cancer Society's Daffodil Sales. Thanks again Lilly for your continued dedication to this very worthwhile project.

Tickets for the Chambers Fourth of July Rodeo have been ordered. Area businesses will be contacted soon regarding sponsorships. The decision was made to use generator lights; placement and exact amount will be decided at a later date. The committee in charge of vendors and concessions for this event will be meeting to discuss those details and report back. This huge event is just around the corner Cowboys!

The Chamber is scheduled to prepare Sunday lunch at the Knight Civic Center on June 15th. Due to that Sunday being Fathers Day an alternate day was discussed and will be announced soon.

The new Town Brochure was reviewed by all in attendance. They will be ready to distribute soon. Local realtors, Welcome Wagon, Chamber of Commerce and the Huntington County Visitors Bureau use these brochures.

Huntington County Chamber of Commerce President Bob Brown was present at this meeting and shared several things with those in attendance. Programs for the Huntington Heritage Days were presented to everyone. Bob spoke briefly regarding the Inventory Tax Elimination and warned business owners of a Regional Chamber of Commerce scam that was circulating through the state.

Businesses represented at this meeting were: Accent Interiors, Campbell & Dye Insurance, Dr Kevin Deakyne DDS, Huntington County Chamber of Commerce, Markle Bank, The Type Galley, Huntington County Visitors Bureau, Handcrafters Marketplace, Daugherty Companies, Marion Tent & Awning, United Methodist Memorial Home, PJ's Flower & Gifts, Ware Brandon Monuments, Zeller Construction, D&D Bike Shop, DeWeese Appliance and Bolinger's Warren Service & Supply.

TOOTH TIPS

By: Dr. Kevin J DeaKyne DDS, PC
DIABETES AND GUM DISEASE

Should diabetics have any special dental concerns?

Yes. Men and women with diabetes are more likely to develop periodontal, or gum disease and to get it more severely.

Periodontal disease is the leading cause of tooth loss in adults. An estimated eighty-five percent of the population has the disease to some degree. Diabetics accumulate more plaque, possibly because they produce less saliva that washes plaque away. Diabetics by definition have higher sugar levels in their oral fluids, which affect the composition of plaque and other microorganisms. Diabetics have less collagen, which is a protein that supports the gums, skins, tendon cartilage and bone. Diabetics tend to lose collagen in the gum tissue, aiding the progress of periodontal disease. Decreased circulation in tiny blood vessels in the gums interferes with nutrition and the healing process in the gum tissue. The good news is that the gums of a person who is in control of his or her diabetes usually react in a fairly normal manner. Regular dental visits will help prevent the start of periodontal disease.

SHEEP ID DAY

The Wells County 4-H Sheep Identification Day will be held Saturday, May 10th at the Wells County 4-H Park in Bluffton, 8 AM - 10:30 AM.

All market lambs and breeding ewes (including registered ewes) must be nose printed and have a permanent ID. Breeding ewes (born after September 1, 2002 until present) includes yearling, fall and spring ewes.

Market lambs will also be weighed for the rate-of-gain contest.

Aged ewes (older than September 1, 2002) and rams should already have a permanent ID (ear tag) and / or registration papers and do not need to be brought to the ID Day. The aged ewes and rams are only exhibited as a county class. They cannot show at State Fair in August.

Scrapie tags for ewes and rams will be available if members do not have an official tag for this federal program. Scrapie is a fatal, degenerative disease affecting the central nervous system of sheep and goats.

Meat goat wethers should also be brought to the ID Day if members plan to take their animal to the Indiana State Fair. These animals will also be nose printed and ear tagged.

Sheep and Meat Goat identification forms will be available at the event and are due May 15th. This year's 4-H Fair will be held July 12 - 17. The Lamb Show is scheduled for 6 PM on Monday, July 14th and the Goat Show is at 1 PM on Monday, July 14th.

If you have questions, or need help to transport your animals, call the Wells County Extension Service, 824-6412.

LUNCH BUDDIES NEEDED

Spring break is over and the school year is winding down - but for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Indiana, Lunch Buddy plans for 2003-2004 school year are already in high gear. The Lunch Buddy program pairs elementary age children with a caring adult mentor. Buddies meet once a week for lunch at the child's school - eating lunch, reading books, doing arts and craft projects or just talking and playing games.

More than 250 children have been matched with a Lunch Buddy this year - and the need for next year is great. Volunteers from area businesses, churches and service groups are needed to share their lunch and love with a child next fall. Lunch Buddies are especially convenient for parents and other volunteers who have family and work commitments that make evening or weekend volunteering a challenge.

Lunch Buddies are currently available to Huntington County students at Andrews, Central, Horace Mann and Lincoln elementary schools and will be expanded to additional children this fall.

To become a volunteer or to find out more about getting your service group or office involved, call Sarah Miretti at (888) 456.1600 ext. 105 or email smiretti@bigbrotherbigsister.org.

SURPRISE CELEBRATION

Family and Friends of Paul Yount gathered on Saturday, April 12, 2003 for a SURPRISE 90th Birthday Party celebration at the Knight Civic Center in Warren, IN, in honor of celebrating Paul's 90th birthday.

Paul's three children, Don Yount and Bonnie Zeller of Warren, and Mary Jennette Mooney of Ocala, Florida hosted the event. Sisters, Nieces and Nephews, Grandchildren, Great-Grandchildren and the newest addition to the family, a Great-Great Grandson, were also in attendance.

The immediate family enjoyed a wonderful meal catered by Kim's Katered Affair. Many friends and extended family joined Paul at the reception following the meal, and enjoyed cake decorated with a fishing theme and a special fish shaped cake too. Bonnie Zeller made the "fish" shaped mints. The tables were adorned with bobbers and other fishing memorabilia.

Paul has been an avid fisherman all his life. In fact, he had just enjoyed an afternoon of fishing on Saturday, at (Granddaughter) Tara and Chris Korporal's home. Also visiting and fishing were Jim & Jennette Mooney, Nitish, Jana, Ariya and Nikhil Amin, Morry Zeller, Phil and Rachel Decker, and Chris, Tara and Wyatt Korporal.

Family and Friends were asked to write out a special memory or story that they had of Paul, for including in a scrapbook. Those cards were included in a scrapbook that had been compiled and designed by his Granddaughter, Taya (Zeller) Decker. Pictures, news articles, fishing trips, family vacations, celebrations and many memories were included in the scrapbook and everyone enjoyed reminiscing over it.

Those attending were: Don Yount, Morry & Bonnie Zeller, Jim

& Jennette Mooney, Brent, Trudi, Devon & Megan Yount, Mike Yount, Cindi, Aaron & Cody Popplewell, Jenny Faulk, Kenny, Melissa & Kasey Krieger, Angela and Korbin Lahr, Nitish, Jana, Ariya & Nikhil Amin, Phil, Taya and Rachel Decker, Chris, Tara & Wyatt Korporal. A brother, Dave Yount, a sister, Bernice Myers and two grandsons, Randy Yount of Arvada, Colorado and Jim Mooney Jr. of Ocala, Florida, were unable to attend.

Paul was born in Dillman, Indiana, one of eight children of Frank and Sadie Yount. He has 3 children, 8 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great grandson. His wife of 63 years, Ruth, passed away in October 2001. He has lived at the corner of 5th Street and Hendricks for the past 65 years! Paul didn't retire from working (from the Town of Warren Utilities department) until the ripe young age of 77 years old. He still stays fit by trying to walk a mile everyday, fishing whenever he can, and looking forward to mushroom hunting in May. Those wishing to send birthday greetings, or stories for including in his scrapbook, should mail those to him at P.O. Box 23, Warren, Indiana 46792.
