GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Student Nights at the Pulse

The Pulse Opera House is offering special student discounts for the Thursday evening performances of Great Expectations. On March 13 and 20, those with valid student ids can attend for $5. (Regular prices are $12 for general admission and $5 for children 12 and under.) Additionally, THURSDAY NIGHT ONLY, the play will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Based on the classic Charles Dickens' novel, "Great Expectations" tells the story of Pip (played by Lucas Exch - pictured at right) who longs to be a part of the upper class. Pip's journey has been a favorite among readers for over a century. The play is written in a story telling style, which leads to a very theatrical retelling of the novel. Narrators are used to move the story along with scenes from Pip's life in between. From Miss Havisham who has worn her wedding dress for over 20 years, to the mysterious convict Magwitch, you will meet a cast of colorful characters you will never forget.

Great Expectations runs March 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22. The box office for the Friday and Saturday shows opens at 7:00 p.m. on show nights and is located in the lobby. Doors to the theatre open at 7:30 p.m. and the curtain is at 8:00 p.m. Thursday night box office opens at 6:30 p.m. and the show starts at 7:30 p.m. Reservations may be made online at www.pulseoperahouse.org or by phone at (260) 375-7017.

continue through 8 p.m.

Food items include walking tacos, nachos, hot dogs, and pizza by the slice. Some of the games include bungee run, face painting, bake walk, duck pond, golf, goldfish toss, sucker tree, tattoos, hoop shoot and many more.

Tickets are 4 for $1 at the door. Join us for a fun filled night.

HALL TO SPEAK

Sgt Terry Hall with the Indianapolis Police Department and nationally acclaimed speaker, will be hosting a community meeting to share his expertise on information "perpetrators don't want you to know" on March 17th. The meeting will be held at Crestview Middle School at 7p.m. This meeting is open to the public at no cost, childcare will be provided. During this visit, Sgt Hall will also be presenting his "Body Safety" series to the students at Crestview, Riverview, Salamonie, Huntington North and Huntington Catholic schools. "The community meeting is strongly encouraged for parents of children who will be hearing Sgt Hall's presentation, so they will know what their child is going to hear and how they can reinforce the information shared," Liz Learned, Department of Child Services.

Sgt Hall travels the world sharing his expertise in body safety to children and adults. During the meeting Sgt Hall will share important information regarding sexual perpetrators, the techniques they use and other facts perpetrators don't want us to know. "We have been honored to have Sgt Hall speak with all of our elementary schools in the past two years. This will be the first time he will share this important message with the middle schools, high school and the parochial school. We have had nothing but positive comments from parents, students, teacher and the community," Jan Williams, Child Protection Team Chr.

The community meeting and classroom presentations are being sponsored by Huntington County Child Protection Team, the Department of Child Services, the Huntington County Community School Corporation and the Youth Services Bureau. Funding for the project has generously been provided by ECOLAB.

MINISTRY IS DROP SITE

Great news was given last week to the new Warren Angel Food Ministry from the headquarters in Monroe, GA. Warren will be a DROP SITE location for the semi truck delivering our food orders. We thought we were going to have to go to Marion to pick up our orders, but AFM in GA. said because we had such a large order this first time they were going to bring it to us. This is a HUGE decision that will make this ministry more appealing to our area. Warren will have a semi truck coming once a month to our town to bring quality, low cost food to anyone who wants it. EVERYONE qualifies and no memberships or requirements are needed. If you want to save money on food, we have the answer with AFM.

What this does mean is that the time of Pick Ups for this Saturday, March 15 will change to 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (from the precious 11:00 - Noon announced) for those who have ordered the March Menu. The semi truck will arrive at the Warren Church of Christ, the Host Site church, around 10:30 a.m. We could use help unloading at that time. It will take us about an hour to get things set up for those coming to get their orders. We have a good number of volunteers coming but if you didn't sign up to help you could come and we would be able to use you or you could observe the process. The supporting area churches have volunteers coming too.

Remember to BRING A LARGE BOX (laundry basket size) and your YELLOW RECEIPT to get your orders filled. You must pick up your order between 11:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. or we will have to give it to a needy family or the Warren Bread of Life Food Pantry. Call us at 375-3022 if you can't be here to pick up or if you need to make other arrangements due to an emergency. We do not have room to store frozen items.

You will be able to place your orders for the April Menu and Specials this Saturday during Pick Ups. Other ordering days are: Saturday, March 29 at the Warren Church of Christ from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m., Thursday, April 3, 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. and Saturday, April 5, 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. Deadline for the April Menu is Sunday, April 6. You must pay for your order when it is placed. We accept cash, checks, money orders and NOW FOOD STAMPS. You can only use your Food Stamp Card at the Warren Church of Christ site as we have to call in for balance verification at the time of the order. Pick Up Day for the April Menu & Specials orders will be Saturday, April 19.

The April Menu and Specials are: Main Menu Unit of food is 2 lb. Fully Cooked Meatloaf, 1 lb. Beef Fajita Strips, 3 lb. Breaded Frying Chicken, 2 lb. St. Louis Style Ribs, 2 lb. For those interested in this food ministry and haven't ordered yet and want to learn about the new Warren Angel Food Ministry you are invited to come this Saturday to see the quality food being sold and pick up materials about it and we are even going to have a video going that you can watch and learn about Angel Food Ministries based in Monroe, GA. You can also call Janice Jordan, Director of the Warren AFM at 375-2293 or 224-4844. Remember that you can place orders at these 9 area churches on Sundays or at their designated times: First Baptist, Warren Wesleyan, United Church of Christ, Warren Methodist, JC Methodist, Liberty Center Methodist, Nazarene, Dillman and Warren Church of Christ.

Other churches can call the Warren Church of Christ to get on board with us. We are thrilled to be working together to bring you this wonderful food ministry.

EARLY DETECTION SAVES LIVES

Free colorectal cancer screening kits available

Since 2005, Parkview Hospital's Community Health Improvement Program has provided thousands of EZ Detect colorectal cancer screening kits to individuals in northeast Indiana.

Colorectal cancer is the second leading cause of cancer deaths. On average, one in 20 people will develop colon cancer. If diagnosed and treated in the early stages, colorectal cancer is highly curable.

Beginning at age 50 (age 45 for African-American men and women), the American Cancer Society recommends that people at average risk for developing colon cancer have a fecal occult blood test yearly and a colonoscopy every 10 years. People with higher risk factors may need to begin screening at an earlier age.

"It is important to do blood stool screening annually to reduce the risk of colorectal cancer and to identify colorectal cancer in its earliest stages," said Teresa Tracey, Director of Parkview Hospital's Community Health Improvement Program. "This year our message is being expanded to the Hispanic community through kits with instructions in Spanish."

Parkview's Community Health Improvement Program funds the EZ Detect initiative.

EZ Detect kits provide a simple way to do blood stool screenings at home. The EZ Detect kits are available now through May 15 at the following Parkview locations:

*Information desk in the lobby of all Parkview Hospital facilities in Fort Wayne, Columbia City, Huntington, LaGrange, and Kendallville

*Parkview Comprehensive Cancer Center on the Parkview North Hospital campus, 11141 Parkview Plaza Drive

MY TOWN and Yours BY DENNIS STROUD

The flood that swept the valleys of central Ohio and Indiana during the week of March 24, 1913, was unique. Nothing like it has happened in modern history. Never before since accurate records became possible has there been a rain fall of such magnitude over so large an area. There are records of greater local rains, but nowhere in all history has there been such a rain that covered so large an area.

It all started on Friday morning March 21, 1913, with high winds that were estimated at sixty miles an hour. Everywhere it left overturned buildings and flattened fences in its wake. Locally the damage was confined to overturned small buildings and barns. But to most people the wind of Friday was forgotten in the great downpour of rain which began Sunday morning March 23, and continued almost without ceasing until Monday evening.

The ground was already water-soaked from the snow and the early spring rains, so practically all of the water that fell remained on the surface and flowed into the streams. The records of the United States weather bureau show that during a period of three days the rain fall amounted to an average of seven and one half inches over an area of more than 8,000 square miles. In other words, something like 9,000 billion gallons of water fell from the clouds during those three days.

It was on Easter Sunday that the storm started. All day the rain poured down and all through the night. Monday morning came and still the rain fell. It seemed on Sunday that the limit of rain fall had been reached, but on Monday the heavens literally opened; the rain fell in sheets, and the people began to realize that the flood would assume dangerous proportions.

Sunday evening the Salamonie River began rising; by midnight it was out of its banks and spreading over the lowlands. A great lake was forming in the ravine on First Street, down where Ackley Automotive is located, and extended eastward across the street. It widened rapidly until it reached across the street, the sidewalk and into the yards of the houses, on the northeast side of the street, from Nancy Street to Jefferson Street, some places it was five feet deep on the sidewalk.

The heaviest damage was to the firm of Finkle Brothers and the Interurban Company. The flood rose until it covered the big dynamo at the town water and light plant. By ten o'clock Monday evening it was no longer possible to keep the fires going. After withstanding the force of the great flood of water that beat upon it all day Tuesday, the Wayne Street bridge gave way between eleven and twelve o'clock Tuesday night and fell into the river. The water had undermined the abutment on the north side of the bridge and the heavy stone work toppled over.

There is an old saying that the water is never missed until the well is dry, the truth of the adage was never better illustrated than in Warren that week. Few people had ever stopped to consider how much they were at the mercy of the machinery at the water plant until it stopped on that Monday night. The town was dark and water had to be carried in buckets. Without lights, without water to drink, without newspapers to read or trains to get out of town on, and with telephone service cut off from a large part of the surrounding country, Warren was isolated from the rest of the world for better than a week. There was nothing to do but watch the water flow down hill.

phone was automatically transferred to an "on hold wait-for-next-assistant" message. Other numbers that showed up on caller ID were 260-494-3290 (cell phone located on Winch St.) and 260-918-4655, a non-working number.

The intent of the caller is to throw the consumer off track by identifying themselves with something they are familiar with, and getting the consumer to give information before they realize it is a scam. Never give information to anyone who is asking for it. Reputable companies, government agencies, or other entities will not do business in this manner.

GRANT AWARDED

The Huntington County Visitor & Convention Bureau's Grant Committee has announced that The Huntington Heritage Days Steering Committee will receive $1,100 in grant money for advertising and promotion of Huntington Heritage Days for this distribution round.

The Huntington County Visitor & Convention Bureau has already given out grant awards totaling over $55,000. The Tourism Promotional Grant Fund was created by the Huntington County Tourism staff and board members to help increase attendance to community festivals and to promote events that last two or more days so as to encourage visitors to stay overnight in Huntington County lodging properties. Grant committee members were Jim Scheiber, Huntington County Tourism Commission President; Ellen Prange, Huntington County Tourism Commission Secretary; and Rose Meldrum, Executive Director of the Visitor Bureau.

The application deadline for the next round of grant money is May 31 for events occurring between July 1 and Dec. 31, 2008.

Money is available for promotional brochures, radio advertising, increased participant registration, billboard, advertising in trade or specialty publications, or any other related promotions. Grant money shall not exceed 50 percent of the total cost up to $2,200.

Not-for-profit community organizations in Huntington County may apply for a Tourism Promotion Grant at the Huntington County Visitor & Convention Bureau located at 407 N. Jefferson Street, or by calling the office at 359-8687 or 800-848-4282.

CHILDHOOD ACADEMY

The Huntington County Early Childhood Academy will meet again on Tuesday, March 18, 2008 at 6:30pm at Horace Mann Elementary School. All childcare and preschool providers are encouraged to participate. At 7pm, Huntington-Whitley Special Services staff will be sharing information about motor skills for preschoolers. Heather Hyndman, occupational therapist, will be discussing normal fine motor development for 3-5 year olds with ideas on how to make it easy and fun for preschoolers. Judy Neiderman, physical therapist, will talk about the typical milestones for large motor skills for ages 3 to 5 and the importance of movement on overall development. She will also provide some suggestions of activities that promote large motor skills in a classroom or childcare environment. Candy Lisinicchia, Early Childhood Coordinator, will review the referral process for early childhood special education services. This will include a brief description of who is eligible for special education services, what those services might look like and what to do if a parent believes their child may need special education. Please RSVP by calling 260-358-4826.

HE'S FINALLY 21!

Most young people look forward to their birthday. But those people born on the 29th of February must wait a very long time for each one. A birthday every four years is pretty hard on kids. Our Leap Year Baby is finally old enough to have a wee dram.

Cary Gaier was born on February 29, 1924 to the Blackford County Gaier Family who lived outside Montpelier on a farm. Most people around Heritage Pointe know him and his wife, Opal, as great volunteers in the Activity Department and the Ceramics Room. Cary and Opal are also known as the first homeowners in Dogwood Villas.

Cary and Opal began their marriage in 1945 in Blackford County out by Jackson's Canning Factory. They were farmers, but never just farmed. After the early morning milking beginning at 3:45 a.m. she worked in town usually as a treasurer or bookkeeper and Cary worked for a school system.

Cary began driving a school bus at Roll in 1947 for $3.25 a day. He stayed at Roll for 4 years and then retired from Southern Wells after 33 years of driving bus and working as the janitor. Cary likes kids and they like him, evidenced by his award as the Distinguished Citizen given by the Southern Wells Student Council while there. He was also a 4-H leader for 25 years and loved working with the youth.

Cary and Opal were big campers and are life members of the Good Sam Camping Association. After selling the dairy business in 1978 they were involved in camping for 20 years where they were Indiana Assistant State Directors. They camped for six months of the year in places all over Indiana and the winter six months there were meetings to keep in touch. They've attended meetings in Michigan, Ohio and Illinois as well as in Indiana.

Cary has many hobbies. He has done woodworking for a number of years. He does scale models and can do almost anything made from wood. His latest project is making wooden dolls or animals connected to a long stick. The dolls and animals are painted and resemble marionettes. They are jointed and so Cary can make them dance to music on a long board. You can see these "marionettes" in action at some of the activities events at Heritage Pointe where he performs with them from time to time.

Cary and Opal have been married for 63 years and have two sons, five grandchildren and a number of greats. They love their new home in the villa and really enjoy volunteering their time and talents at Heritage Pointe. They love the hometown atmosphere and were pleased to see that three of their former ministers live at the home as well as numerous friends and acquaintances from over the years.

There are three birthdays on February 29th at Heritage Pointe besides Cary, as well as one anniversary, so there are a few others who truly do stay young. But the girls from Activities Department/Health Care and all of us want to wish Cary a happy 21st birthday.

(Happy Belated Birthday from the Warren Weekly – due to technical snafu's this didn't get published when we wanted it to.)
