THE UPTOWN GARDENER by Ruth Herring

Hard to believe November is here, each year seems to go by faster. I have most of the outside garden chores done, still have a few geraniums out but will be bringing them in this week. Last year I pulled several and trimmed them down and placed them in a box in garage. In about late February I checked them and had several showing growth, I repotted them and was able to save several to put in the flower beds this past spring and they did very well. So I have about a dozen stored away hoping I will have the same luck next spring. Quite a pleasant thing to me, to be potting up garden in the dead of winter.

I have also made a big pot of the cabbage soup to put in freezer to have on the cold wintery days coming. I freeze individual servings and really comes in nice on days I have no desire to cook or iAB Financial Bank, in conjunction with the American Bankers Association (ABA), is taking an active role to help the community by providing safety tips for consumers when using their mobile device(s). While these handy gadgets provide convenient access to your email, bank and social media accounts, they can unfortunately also potentially provide the same convenient access for criminals.

PROTECT YOURSELF

iAB and the ABA suggest following these tips to keep you and your information safe:

- Use the passcode lock on your smartphone and other devices. This will make it more difficult for thieves to access your information if your device is lost or stolen.
- Protect your phone from viruses and malicious software, or malware. Do this just like you do for your computer by installing mobile security software.
- Use caution when downloading apps. Apps can contain malicious software, worms, and viruses. Beware of apps that ask for unnecessary permissions.
- Avoid storing sensitive information. Passwords or a social security number should never be stored on any mobile device.
- Be aware of shoulder surfers. The most basic form of information theft is observation. Be aware of your surroundings especially when you're punching in sensitive information.
- Wipe your mobile device before you donate, sell or trade it. Use specialized software or use the manufacturer's recommended technique to be sure your mobile device is wiped clean. Some software allows you to wipe your device remotely if it is lost or stolen.
- Beware of mobile phishing. Avoid opening links and attachments in emails and texts, especially from senders you don't know. And be wary of ads (not from your security provider) claiming your device is infected.

• Watch out for public Wi-Fi. Public connections aren't very secure, so don't perform banking transactions on a public network. If you need to access your account, try disabling the Wi-Fi and switching to your mobile network.

• Log out completely when you finish a mobile banking session.

• Download the updates for your phone and mobile apps.

• Report any suspected fraud

read, "If you feel the need to talk to someone, please feel free to call me." I didn't call him. I didn't have to because I knew I had a friend and that friend had made it obvious that he cared. What a gift he gave me. And what a gift he gave himself because there is something about caring about another human being that helps them and you all at the same time.

There is such great truth in what the novelist, A. J. Cronin, wrote: "Worry never robs tomorrow of its sorrow. It only saps today of its strength."

5 BASIC NEEDS OF A WOMAN

"You have succeeded in life when all you really want is only what you really need."

That quote is by Vernon Howard and he was probably never dazzled by brochures for fancy vacations or a catalogue from William Sonoma. We are continually tempted to buy what we don't need.

There was a recent ad on the Internet peddling the latest autumn purses (referred to as bags). It said in the email subject line: 9 Bags You Must Own This Fall. With suggestions like this, it's no wonder we can hardly move in our closets!

Really the only thing we need to buy regularly is food and gas. Vernon would not be happy with some of my purchases. Like this crab hat my granddaughter Sophia is wearing. What was I thinking? I know, 'I've gotta have it!'

Vernon's quote resonates with women because we've experienced the clutter and resulting chaos that comes with not learning when enough is enough and being tempted by advertising. Yeah, we have duplicates of many items but that's only because we lose an item and have to buy another. And yeah, we have more babies than BOs (Born Organized) because we never pay much attention to a calendar.

There is great truth in Howard's quote and there's another angle to it that has to do with being successful at being organized. What do you really want when it comes to getting organized? You really need to know what you want if you want to succeed at it.

Do you want a home like Martha Stewart's or your mother's? Or do you want a home that reflects your nature and the nature of your family? So often we see what others have and we want that, but that can get us into big trouble. I think another word for that is coveting.

5 Basic Needs

- Survival
- Love and belonging
- Power
- Freedom
- Fun

If we only wanted what we need, our lives would look very different right now.

Our car would fit in the garage. Our homes would be streamlined and clutter-free.

Our closets, cupboards and drawers would contain just what we love and use.

We'd have the freedom to play more and have fun with our family and friends.

We'd understand that we have personal power that's been given to us to use for the good of all concerned.

We'd have time to feel God's love for us and we'd begin to trust all processes. I love this quote by Mandy Hale, "What we are waiting for is not as important as what happens to us while we are waiting. Trust the process."

We have a tendency to want to follow, but each of you has an individual path that is perfect for you, and a guidance system that makes GPS primitive. In the Course in Miracles it says, "If you knew who was always beside you on the path you have chosen, you'd never be afraid." You are never alone and when you turn inward for guidance you don't need to follow anyone you've put up on a pedestal. You'll ultimately fail if you place your power to be successful in anyone's hands but yours.

To really succeed in getting organized you need to get organized just to please you. Your desire to get organized is divine. You know intuitively that if you followed a path to order you'd be happier and more joyful. I really believe that too much stuff is what gets in your way.

Now, get quiet, take a few deep breaths and ask yourself, "Your name, what do you want your home to do for you?" Listen and write down your answer. When I did this exercise a song came to mind. It was one of my mom's favorites, Bless this House. (She loved Perry Como singing it.) When she was in a coma on her deathbed we played her favorite music for her in her room and when this song came on, she smiled. Here are the lyrics and a link to Perry singing it.

Bless this House Words and Music by Helen Taylor and May H. Morgan (a.k.a. Brahe), 1927
Bless this house, O Lord we pray, Make it safe by night and day...

Bless these walls so firm and stout, Keeping want and trouble out...

Bless the roof and chimneys tall, Let thy peace lie overall...

Bless this door that it may prove, Ever open, to joy and love...

Bless these windows shining bright, Letting in God's Heavenly light,

Bless the hearth, a blazing there, With smoke ascending like a prayer!

Bless the people here within, Keep them pure and free from sin...

Bless us all that we may be, Fit O Lord to dwell with thee...

Bless us all that one day we may dwell, O Lord! With Thee!

Here's the link to Perry Como singing Bless this House <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=934IUuATPME>

Dear One, get organized just to please you. Let your innate wisdom guide you to create a home free of want and trouble.

God bless you and God bless your home. Love, Pam

2015 PANCAKE BREAKFAST REPORT

The Pancake Breakfast on Labor Day Plum Tree UCC wants to thank the volunteers who gave up their Saturday morning on Sept 5, 2015 to help us make our Pancake Breakfast a success once again.

As in past years, we are never sure what our church can do on its own, and the Warren Community stepped up to make it possible to continue to contribute money to Warren Food Bank. It was announced at church that it would be helpful for those unable to physically help, at least just coming to eat and chat with neighbors would help a lot. So all of Plum Tree pitched in with the help of Volunteers from the Warren community to make this year another success. Many were donors only, some just ate breakfast, and some paid a little extra for tickets. Many businesses contributed money or products served at the breakfast. We served Buttermilk pancakes, sausage, fried apples, butter, syrup, coffee, orange drink, water with coffee and donuts on side. Pastor Jill took young kids and sold donuts at the tractor pull.

Left over Pancake Mixes, syrup, and sausages were donated to the Warren Food Bank. Afterwards Plum Tree gave Kroger cards worth $1,000.00 to Rose for use as needed to further the work of the Food Bank, and Plum Tree made $500 to defray costs.

We at Plum Tree are deeply grateful for the community, the churches, the volunteers, and the donors who helped us accomplish a successful "Fund Raiser" in 2015. We are also grateful for Rose Broyles, who helped us contact volunteers, scrub floors or what ever there was that needed doing. The museum was open and many folks enjoyed the local exhibits. Some were not aware that this wonderful resource was available. Denny Stroud works very hard to display things donated to the museum. He was there all morning overseeing and showing off the great museum. Thanks Mr. Stroud!

The money that was raised for the Food Bank was wonderful but an even greater value we all gained was the smiles on everyone's face as they worked to do something for others and they did it together. Good food, good friends, and a good time working together! Thanks for it all! ...And you could go "Down the Hill" and watch, or take part in, the Labor Day Tractor Pull, a long-standing Warren area tradition!

Please Say Thanks to our Donors: Salamonie Mills-Kevin Drayer---bought Whole Hog sausage from Lengerich and donated it Lengerich Meats - Mike Stephan-----sausage processing and delivery, Hyline International---supplies eggs to Food Pantry all year through Salamonie Mills, Accent Interiors--donation, McDonald's--Orange Drink with cups and dispenser, East of Chicago Pizza---Coffee, DeWeese Soft Water---water and donation, Owen's --$25.00 gift card for donuts and reduced price on Buttermilk Pancake Mix, Warren Pharmacy--donation Kim's Katered Affair--Last minute preparation of Fried Apples and delivery to Knight - Bergman Center, Saturn Wheel --donation CPS -- donation ...If anyone was missed, we sincerely apologize!

Finally, and most assuredly not least, Rose Broyles ---for all the things she does.

to be working on a project and not taking time to fix a meal.

After Christmas holidays I start on my lap quilt project making warm cover up quilts for Hospice or any needy group. Last winter I did 25 which I delivered to Hospice in the spring, I enjoy doing for them as when Wayne was so sick they gave him such wonderful care and I feel as if I am paying them back for all they did for us.

This summer I along with the ladies who volunteer in the sewing room at Heritage Pointe did 20 quilts which will be given to veterans in Health Care unit during a special program soon. That was a wonderful project as each quilt was military theme. We were proud to participate in it. As you can tell in the winter months my sewing machine and I are good friends.

There is a banana bread recipe floating around town which will share with those who do not have it, it takes 1 box of yellow cake mix, 3 ripe bananas mashed and 2 eggs. Beat the eggs and bananas till bananas are well mixed, add the cake mix and blend till well mixed. Pour into 2 oiled 8x5 loaf pans bake about 40 minutes at 350 or until a tooth pick entered in center comes out clean. I also have added chopped pecan pieces. It is nice and moist, easy to make and stays fresh for several days, but you may need to hide it.

Happy fall
