"THE BEST CHRISTMAS PAGEANT EVER" OPENS AT THE PULSE

On the day after Thanksgiving, the Pulse Opera House will ring in the holidays with Barbara Robinson's classic Christmas story "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever." This tale of rehearsals gone bad, the horrible Herdman kids and the true meaning of Christmas is highly recommended for the whole family.

The large cast features performances from children and adults from Warren and the surrounding area. Tickets are going fast, so you'll want to make reservations to ensure a seat!

Audiences for the Thursday, December 1 are in for a special treat. The Huntington Children's Choir will perform short concert before the show for that performance only. On Friday, December 9, students from Crestview Middle School, Salamonie School, Van Buren Elementary School and St. Terese (Fort Wayne) will attend performances of the show.

The show runs November 25 & 26 and December 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under. The doors open at 7:30 PM and the show starts at 8:00 PM. Tickets may be reserved by calling (260) 375-7017. This is one Christmas treat you won't want to miss!

SANTA ... TO TOWN

Don't forget Santa Claus is Comin' to Town this Friday evening. The annual Christmas Tree, Town lights and Civic Center lights will be turned on to begin the Holiday season. Dress warm - we hear that it will be COLD this weekend.

CONFUSED BY MEDICARE PART D?

On Tuesday, November 29th, and Thursday December 1st, someone will be at the Warren Pharmacy to help answer questions about enrollment in a Medicare Part D plan. Appointments are available between the hours of 9AM & 5PM. Call the Warren Pharmacy at 375-2135.

THE WEEKLY SPECIAL

by Helen @ Natalie Jeanne's Christmas is the time of year for spreading joy, visiting family, giving and receiving presents, Santa Claus and in my family, Christmas is the time for Tortoni!!! Tortoni is, naturally, an Italian dessert that my family makes during the holiday season. Why we never made them any other time of year I still can't figure out. My mother used to make double recipes because we would always go into the freezer and sneak them before Christmas dinner. Folks, this is it...My favorite holiday recipe!
Tortoni

- 1 cup plus 1/4 cup ground hard macaroons
- 2 cups heavy cream
- 2/3 cups confectioner's sugar

- 2 eggs whites, stiffly beaten
- 2 Tbsp sherry

Beat the heavy cream then fold in 1 cup of the macaroons, sugar, egg whites and sherry. Line cupcake tins and pour mixture into cups. Sprinkle with remaining macaroon crumbs and freeze. To serve, defrost for five minutes. Makes 24 tortonis. However, I advise you to make more. And if you need someone to sample, you know where I'm at!

I have had a nice response to last week's rice pie recipe. Rice pie will be on the menu this weekend at Natalie Jeanne's to kick off the holiday season and the Pulse Opera House's opening weekend of "Best Christmas Pageant Ever" in style. Happy Holidays! Until next week (maybe?!), Bon Appetit!

May 31 is the deadline for events held between July 1st and December 31, 2006. THANKS FOR DONATIONS

The Bread of Life Food Pantry extends deepest thanks to the Warren Community; and especially to John Tolen and his dedicated Scouts. Their efforts put 822 items in the empty spaces on our shelves on Saturday, Nov. 5th!! With the holidays at hand, this has been so very meaningful. Again, our thanks to each pair of hands that had a part in this expression of love.

RECOGNIZING THE PLYMOUTH THANKSGIVING

HOW THE PILGRIMS BECAME AMERICA'S FOREFATHERS

The town of Plymouth in Massachusetts has not always been well known. The town and the Pilgrims who created it were largely forgotten for 200 years until December 22, 1820.

On that day, the great orator Daniel Webster traveled to Plymouth from Boston to take part in the bicentennial celebration of the Pilgrims' landing. So great was his speech that it became known as the "Plymouth oration."

Before 1,500 people seated on wooden benches in the meeting-house, he said, in part:

"We have come to this Rock to record here our homage for our Pilgrim Fathers; our sympathy in their sufferings; our gratitude for their labors, our admiration of their virtues; our veneration for their piety, and our attachment to those principles of civil and religious liberty.."

"We listen to the chiefs in council... We are filled with reverence and admiration for the mild dignity of Carver and Bradford, the decisive military air of Standish, the devout Brewster, the enterprising Allerton..."

Webster's oration started the elevation of the Pilgrims to the status of forefathers of the nation. At that time, the recently independent America needed an event and a place that rooted the country to its founding history.

They needed a founding location. Jamestown in Virginia was a candidate as was Plymouth in Massachusetts. Jamestown had an advantage because it was founded 13 years before the Pilgrims landed. But Plymouth offered a moral authority, thanks to the words of Daniel Webster.

Though the great Thanksgiving feast occurred 385 years ago, we still follow the Pilgrims' lead in being thankful for our blessings on Thanksgiving Day.

WARREN HATTERS

What exciting events have taken place in the past few weeks. The UMMH again lent their bus to the Real Elegant Dames to judge the fantastic Scarecrows that were created by Warren residents. Kept wishing we could give 1st. place to each one, they were all so outstanding. The following day, we were honored to be invited to help judge the Hallowe'en Pumpkin contest in Huntington. How artfully they presented the entries in separate categories with a grand over-all 1st. place. We deeply appreciated the warm welcome we received, the delicious refreshments and their lovely "thank you" gift. The following week, we traveled south for a Red Hatter lunch at the famed Hostess House in Marion, that was followed by a talented and enjoyable musical program.

Christmas is promising more pleasant events in store.

The Varsity Boys are now 4-2 and are coached by Mark Featherston & Mark Shultz.

The Jr. High Eagles (14 & under, as of 9/1/05) dominated the young Blazers 64-20, allowing the younger Eagles to have significant court time, so that every Eagle that played was able to score.

The JrHi Eagles are 2-2 and coached by Jeff Humbarger & Blake Hitzfield.

The Eagles play King's Academy Tuesday, 11/29, in Fairmont. The Eagles' next HOME games are against the Fort Wayne Hawks, Friday night, 12/2, at the Horace Mann School Gym. The Lady Eagles will play both nights against King's, and a rematch with Tippecanoe Tornados.

NEW COMPUTER? WHAT TO DO WITH THE OLD ONE

(NUI) - Did you get a new computer? Everyone loves a shiny new tech toy, but the question comes not long after the box is opened: What to do with the old one and all the information stored on it? Consider the following options:

* Re-use. With all the music files, photos and other digital stuff we accumulate on our computers, why not use the old one as a place to store it all? This frees up the new computer for new content and things like business and home files. If someone accidentally downloads a virus or some other problem arises on the new computer, all those MP3s and JPEGs will be safe.

* Transfer. Even though you have your music and photos stored on the old system, you will probably want regular access to them to load onto your MP3 player.

A great way to access your files and programs from any computer is with a remote access solution like www.LogMeIn.com. For less than $6 per month, users can log onto their computer desktop from any Internet-enabled device around the world and view, share and transfer files.

It's ideal for telecommuters linking to their offices from home, travelers using the Web browser on their hotel TV or serious mobile workers living off their laptops.

* Recycle. Most retailers and electronics manufacturers have a recycling program in place. Charities are also getting on the re-use bandwagon by refurbishing old computers for schools or collecting used cell phones for fundraising purposes.

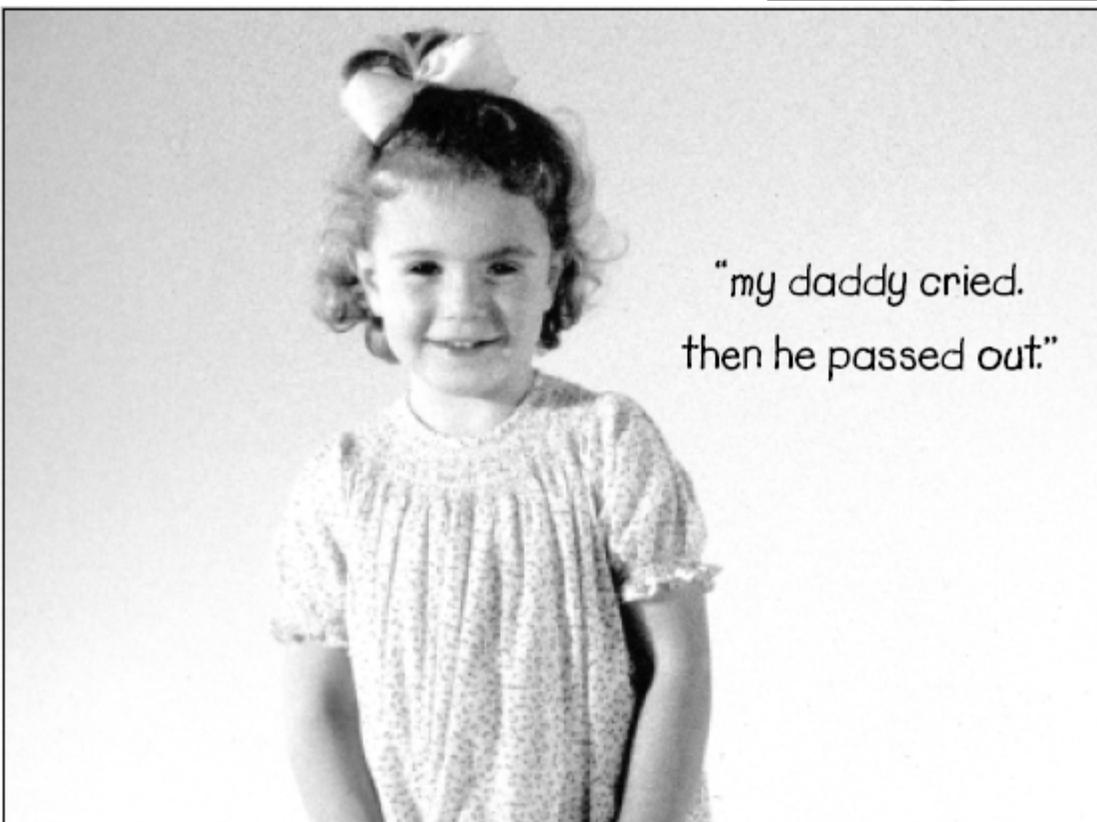

Take a look at sites like www.charitablerecycling.com and www.nrc-recycle.org/resources/electronics/ for more ideas.

* Sell. Of course, there's always a yard sale. Whether you sell it online, to a pawn shop, to a friend or donate it to a charity, make sure you completely remove any personal information, like bank account numbers and passwords, before handing it over to the new owner.

With these choices, don't feel remorseful about replacing that "perfectly good" technology anymore. Dig into that brand new box and start enjoying your new computer today, knowing there might be plenty of life left in the old one.
