PLAYGROUPS HELP TOD-DLERS DEVELOP

Kids Kampus(SM), Huntington, is accepting enrollment for playgroups for children from 24 months to 36 months old. Playgroups offer two and a half hours of well-planned play and activities which help children with a number of important skills. Each group meets twice a week, either in the morning or afternoon.

"Playgroups are especially beneficial to children with stay-athome parents," said Carla MacDonald, Kids Kampus(SM) Administrator. "It gives them a chance to develop social skills, such as sharing, with other children their age."

Other benefits of playgroups include developing thinking and physical abilities more quickly. "When kids see other kids doing things like tying their own shoes or matching colors, they want to do it too," MacDonald said. "Parents are obviously important teachers, but it is often hard for them to motivate their kids as well on their own."

Parents also benefit from playgroups. They get five hours a week to do other things while their children attend. "Every parent needs a break," MacDonald said.

The fee for the service is $50 per month. Scholarships are available for families who have financial need. Parents who wish to enroll their children in a playgroup should call Kids Kampus(SM) at 356-0123.

Kids Kampus(SM) is a division of Pathfinder Services, Inc., a not-for-profit human service organization.

Since red cells must be used within 42 days and platelets are only good for five days, the need for blood is continuous. A single blood donation has the potential to save up to three lives; spend an hour of your day saving a life.

The American Red Cross is currently operating with critically low supplies of types 0+, 0-, A- and B-. All blood types are important and welcome, but the Red Cross strongly encourages donors with

BETTER HAY FEVER TREATMENT FOR KIDS, ATHLETES

As the pollen allergy season grows more intense, one unusual medicine is being recommended.

Cromolyn (Nasalcrom), a nonprescription nasal spray, works as well as many drugs such as antihistamines, but with a very low risk of side effects, according to a recent review in the New England Journal of Cromolyn is especially good for children, athletes, and the elderly. Steroid-based nasal sprays such as Flonase are more effective, but these prescription drugs may stunt growth if used over the long term. They are not ideal for kids. Athletes who must undergo routine drug testing may need to avoid drugs containing steroids.

Because it is not absorbed throughout the body as many other drugs are, cromolyn doesn't interact with other drugs. This makes cromolyn a good alternative for people who must take other medications.

Cromolyn works by hindering the release from immune system cells of substances that trigger inflammation and allergic response.

THINK BEFORE SWITCHING TO NEWLY APPROVED DRUG

A report in the Journal of the American Medical Association indicates that if your present medication is working, it's probably better to stick with that rather than demand a newly approved drug.

Of 548 drugs approved by the FDA over the past 25 years, 20 percent turned out to have serious effects that were unknown at the time of approval, say doctors at Harvard Medical School. Sixteen were withdrawn from the market, and seven had side effects that contributed to more than a thousand deaths.

When a drug is used by many thousands of people, more side effects become evident than during the testing period. So maybe it's a good idea to wait before asking for something new.

Drug companies say all medications involve some risk.

SAFETY

As the summer comes to an end, many families will be spending the last summer holiday traveling. Traditionally, Labor Day weekend is a very dangerous time for travelers on the roads.

Indiana statistics show when parents are not buckled up, only 57.9 percent of children are restrained; and when parents are buckled up, children are buckled up 92.8 percent of the time. With that in mind, Huntington Countywide Law Enforcement will be reminding the community to "Click It or Ticket. And for your family's safety it will be enforced."

"Indiana Law states that all front seat passengers and all children under the age of 12 must be properly restrained," stated Sheriff Rod Jackson. "Officers will be out ensuring that all families know and

Proof of Achievement

The General Educational Development (GED) Tests are a nationally recognized assessment that gives people from all walks of life the opportunity to prove they have the skills to earn a high school diploma. From Maine to California, the GED scores mean the same thing. The tests measure reading, writing, social studies, science and math skills. The new 2002 GED tests also measure communication, information-processing, problem-solving, and critical thinking skills. The tests reflect current high school curriculum standards, and include content related to the workplace and community. Only six out of ten graduating high school seniors could pass the 2002 GED tests.

How to prepare: Watch GED Connection on local public TV Stations The new GED Connection television series is a multimedia series designed for adults who want or need to study from home as they brush up to take the GED and earn the State of Indiana GED Diploma. The television programs will be broadcast on Indiana PBS stations. There are 39 half-hour television programs that cover the material on the new test. Three workbooks go along with the five-month series.

New to this GED ON TV series, learners who have access to the Internet can get extra practice with corresponding online lessons at http://www.pbs.org/literacy.

COUNCIL NOTES

On Monday evening, Aug. 12, the Warren Town Council met in the Town Hall Annex. At 6:30 p.m. president Harold Jones called the meeting to order with the Pledge to the American Flag.

Approval was given to the minutes of July 22 special meeting, July 24, July 25 and Aug. 2, and the regular meeting of July 22.

The Park Board met prior to the Council meeting. David Scheib reported the meeting to Council. Due to a continuance of vandalism to the Park restrooms, Council gave their approval that the facilities only be opened when there are activities at the Park.

Council agreed to purchase more substantial drinking fountains for the Park at a cost of $1600. The handicapped accessible fountain will replace an existing fountain which has been repeatedly vandalized.

The Park Board was of the opinion that the remaining bleachers should have the wood removed and the seats be replaced. That would complete bleacher renovation and replacement conducted over the past three years.

At Stucky Field it was requested that the dugout be covered instead of moved.

The next Park Board meeting will be Sept. 9.

Rural Development, USDA had forwarded to Town Council approval from the U.S. General Accounting office of the Wastewater Project. Bid for the project went to Indiana Construction. Harold Jones was authorized to sign an escrow agreement from Indiana Construction Corporation, contractor for the Wastewater Plant project, with Star Financial Bank.

The contractor had replaced a leaking valve at the Water Treatment Plant, but the landscaping job is not expected to be completed until fall. The leaking valve was replaced by the manufacturer due to a default.

Spectrum Engineering will begin on site work on the electric distribution system upgrade within the next week. The $300,000 project had previously been approved by Council.

We know the territory

Milling of Grover street was expected to begin on Tuesday. It was hoped paving would start on Wednesday and Thursday. Council approved an additional $1500 for paving of driveways due to curbing put in after the project had been bid.

Also, Council approved Resolution 3-2002 "Action Agenda" Downtown Project, establishing the "Our Town" committee as a committee of the Town until the group achieves independent status.

Council approved the computer consultant to be here Aug. 27 to get the computers ready for Keystone software installation.

It was reported there are 1000 blue bins available for recycling. The distribution will be announced later. Karl Fuller, Huntington County Waste, is preparing recycling information.

Attorney Ted Bendall is scheduled to be at the Aug. 26 meeting of Council to discuss the United Methodist Memorial Home annexation.

Council voted to change the current banners after Labor Day.

Markle had requested a loan of the wood chipper. Council decided that legal documentation is needed before the machine can be rented. It would be the responsibility of Markle to prepare the necessary documents.

Clerk-Treasurer Marilyn Morrison reported the Budget had been sent for publication. Public Hearing for the Budget is to be Aug. 26.

A report was given for a financial advisor meeting on Aug. 5. Excel programs are being prepared for fixed access accounting and for the Wastewater project documentation.

The State Board of Accounts audit had been completed last week.

Darrel Bice reported from the Utility/Street Departments. Crews had located two water valves. Electric lines had been buried at Tower Park. Maintenance was done at the Wastewater Plant.

Bice requested permission for he and Chuck Booher to attend a Seminar Sept. 12 at Shipshewanna. Also a Wastewater meeting will be Aug. 29 at Marion. Lee Poulson and Darrel Bice requested to attend the meeting. Council approved both requests.

Fire Chief Tim Ford reported from the Fire Department.

Town Marshal Steve Donnelly presented a request to Council for cell phones for the Town of Warren. Council approved the request. This will replace pager cost and the current cell phone contract at an annual savings of approximately $300.

The next Council meeting will be Aug. 26.

STRIDES AGAINST BREAST CANCER

Northeast Indiana residents are invited to join the American Cancer Society on Saturday, October 12, as the nation's largest public health organization wages an attack on breast cancer by holding its 5th annual Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk in Fort Wayne at Headwaters Park West.

This national walk event has quickly become the largest community event in support of breast cancer research in the United States with 48 cities participating in 2001 raising more than $50 million since 1993.

"The American Cancer Society is the largest public health organization in the country," said Elizabeth Kehoe, American Cancer Society Area Executive Director, "And we are attacking the number one health issue facing women today by hosting the largest single-market community event benefiting breast cancer research in the country right here in Northeast Indiana."

This year 4,400 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer in Indiana and 900 women will die of the disease.

Last year the Northeast Indiana Making Strides Against Breast Cancer raised over $126,000 for breast cancer research, education, advocacy, and patient service programs.

The American Cancer Society is the largest nonprofit funder of breast cancer research and services in the United States. Making Strides Against Breast Cancer is a noncompetitive, 5K walk that will start and finish at Headwaters Park West in Fort Wayne. On Saturday, October 12, registration begins at 8:30 am. and the walk starts at 10:00 am. Anyone interested in joining the fight against breast cancer and participating in Making Strides Against Breast Cancer as a walker or a volunteer is encouraged to contact the American Cancer Society at (260)471-3911.
