THANK YOU FROM SOLID ROCK

Solid Rock UMC wants to thank everyone that attended our Fall Bazaar and made it a great success. Weather cooperated and we had a great turn out. We do want to apologize to anyone that did not get a bowl of soup or a sandwich for lunch (as we sold out of it early in the day). We are already making plans to make sure that we have plenty of soup next year and everyone will get all they want. Due to your attendance and generous givings the proceeds from our bazaar will be going to the following groups/programs:

Warren Food Pantry - $200; Christmas All Year Around (for community utility bills) - $800; WAMA (for the WAY, Warren Area Youth) - $300; Salamonie School Incentive Program - $200; and Knight Bergman Center (furnace fund) - $300.

Again thank you everyone for supporting our programs. We invite you to join us on Sunday mornings at 9:00am for Sunday School and at 10:00am for worship service with Pastor Paul Burris.

THANKSGIVING: HAVE AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

By Bryan Golden

Thanksgiving is much more than a big meal with family and friends. It's a time to reflect on, and be thankful for, all of the good things you have. It's important to be grateful, not just on Thanksgiving, but each and every day. Rather than lamenting what you feel is lacking in your life, begin each new day by developing an attitude of gratitude. Take inventory of your blessings and you will be surprised at just how much you have to be thankful for.

If you have enough to eat, a place to live, a way to get around, people who care about you, or people you care about, then you are wealthy. If you lack any of these elements, you must still be grateful for what you do have, while striving to obtain whatever is absent.

Focus on all positive aspects of your life. Take nothing for granted. Every morning, recharge your appreciation. Be happy for everything there is, not upset over what you feel is missing.

Dreams of the future shouldn't diminish appreciation for the present. If all you do is concentrate on what you want, you won't enjoy today. Don't be jealous of others; what they do or have has no bearing on you.

You can feel bitter or resentful for a variety of reasons. Perhaps you feel something is missing from your life, things aren't going your way, or you have been treated unfairly. You may wonder, "why do these things always happen to me?"

COUNCIL NOTES

The Town Council of the Town of Warren met Monday, November 14, 2016 at Assembly Hall, Council Meeting Room, 131 N. Wayne Street, in accordance with rules of Council and applicable law.

Those present were: Town Council, Steve Buzzard, Tracey Brown, Julia Glessner, Ethan Stivers (absent); Clerk-Treasurer, Marilyn Morrison; Employees, Lee Poulson and others.

President Glessner called the meeting to order at 4:00 pm.

Mark Jesse and Jamal Anabyawi of D&Z Engineering submitted a proposal for engineering services in regard to development of a Comprehensive Pavement Inventory and Management Plan in preparation for grant submission to INDOT. The five year plan will form the basis for the grant submission and includes drainage, streets, and sidewalks with a rating system to identify areas most in need. Following further discussion, Glessner moved, seconded by Buzzard to accept the contract in the amount of $10,980. The motion was approved unanimously. Work will be underway immediately. The project will be in conjunction with the Town's Civil Engineer, Commonwealth Engineering.

A public hearing was opened at the request of Department of Community Development for action on the property at 907 N. Main.

The property had been purchased in a tax sale but proposed improvement of the property has not happened. Marla Stambazze of the Department updated progress on the property. Following the closing of the Public Hearing, Council, by consensus, opted to modify the original order as recommended to allow time for submittal of a repair schedule by the owner setting November 28, 2016 as the deadline.

A public hearing on Ordinance 2016-2 was opened. A review of the ordinance was given but no public comments were made and the hearing was closed. Buzzard moved, seconded by Glessner to adopt Ordinance 2016-2 and the motion was approved unanimously. The ordinance updates testing and connection sections of Town Code and has been approved by IDEM.

Sealed quotes were received for two snow plows as advertised. Top bidders were Heritage Point at $2,020 and Jay Shaw at $2,321.68. By consensus, the bids were accepted.

Council reviewed the Notice to Bidders for purchase of a Tanker Truck for the Fire Department. Bids are to be opened at the December 19, 2016 meeting of Town Council. The purchase cost is covered jointly by the Town of Warren and Salamonie Township.

Ashley Bergeon of UniFirst Corporation submitted a quote for provision of rental clothing, mats, etc. Council took the matter under advisement. Cintas is the current provider.

The December meeting of Council has been rescheduled for December 19th.

Acting upon a request from the Department of Community Development for addresses for emergency responders, Council, by consensus, established the following addresses:

Entrance off of Grover - 126 N. Grover, Water Treatment Plant - 106 N. Grover, Tennis Courts - 108 N. Grover, Entrance off of Third - 700 E. Third Street.

By consensus, Council opted out of rejoining Huntington County Chamber of Commerce due to the local Chamber being involved.

Fletcher Sabinske reported that the Eagle Scouts project in Tower Park has been completed. The GaGa Pit has been installed and is being used.

In the absence of Marshal Spitler, Council reviewed quotes for purchase of a 2017 Ford Explorer Police Interceptor as follows: Crain Ford - $31,600, City Ford - $32,267, Southworth Ford - $31,433.

Following discussion, Buzzard moved, seconded by Brown to accept the quote of Crain Ford. The motion was carried unanimously.

Poulson, as Fire Chief, reported that five members had completed and passed the First Responder Class.

Poulson, as Utility Manager, updated projects noting that Salamonie Heights project is complete with removal of poles and wiring left, Crop Production Service project of placing service underground is nearing completion, and Christmas lighting preparation is being completed prior to the Walk of Trees on November 18th.

Poulson has scheduled to attend a meeting on December 8th in Gas City to earn credit hours for licensing.

Announcements were as follows: December 19 - Next

Regular Meeting, November 24, 25 - Closed for Thanksgiving

Greg Guerrettaz, Financial Solutions Group and Town's Financial Consultant, presented rate reviews for the Electric, Water, and Wastewater Departments.

Citing that the Electric Department continues to maintain balances and that the Wastewater Fund, while future projects may require adjustment to rates, has also maintained balances, the Water Utility was the focus of discussion. As the Comprehensive Plan for the Town includes the need to replace the over sixty year old tower in Tower Park at the estimated cost of $750,000 and the installation of a new well is currently underway to replace a well that is non-operational at the cost of $100,000 to complete, it is necessary to consider a rate increase. While the well work is underway out of necessity, the Tower replacement project has not been engineered. A grant will be sought to offset the cost of the Tower but matching funds will be necessary. Engineered estimated costs to refurbish and bring the existing Tower up to code was set at $300,000 which would have also required a rate increase Council had previously determined that refurbishing at that cost was not a viable option. The recommended rate increase of twenty percent would see increases of approximately $4.29 per month for users of 3333 gallons per month or less with users of 11,000 gallons per month seeing increase of $12.54 per month. The average residential usage is 5,000 gallons and that increase would be $6.09 per month. The rate increase could go into effect as early as March 1, 2017. Buzzard moved, seconded by Glessner, to proceed with steps necessary for the rate increase. The motion was approved unanimously.

ICARE DAY

On Friday, November 11th, iAB recognized their 4th Annual iCare Day be working in service to over 25 local charitable organizations. This day is one in which all iAB employees volunteer together in the community, making a positive impact in the lives of others. This annual event occurs on a day the bank is normally closed, allowing employees the opportunity to spend some time giving back to local communities as well as commemorating their anniversary as a bank.

Nearly 300 employees volunteered at local non-profit facilities in Allen, Huntington, Marshall and Wells counties, completing such tasks as painting, cleaning, landscaping, packing donation boxes and serving and preparing meals for veterans. The efforts came as part of iAB's longtime commitment to active involvement in the communities they serve. "Again this year, we saw great things happen as a result of iAB employees and their commitment to making a difference," stated Karen J. Cameron iAB Executive Vice President. "It's incredibly rewarding to know that we can make such a huge impact for others with a little bit of extra effort and teamwork."

Some of the organizations iAB worked with on iCare Day were: Big Brothers Big Sisters Northeast Indiana, Bread of Life Food Pantry, Community Harvest Food Bank, Easter Seals/ARV, Erin's House, Forgotten Children Worldwide, Franciscan Center, Gateway Woods, Gigi's Playhouse, Grabill Food Bank, Habitat for Humanity, Huntington County 4-H Park, Indiana Dream Center, Junior Achievement, Liberty Landing, Lutheran South Unity School, Mad Anthony's Children's Hope House, Markle Church of Christ, Mustard Seed, Northern Wells Food Pantry, Operation: Quiet Comfort, Rescue Mission, SCAN, Turnstone, Women's Bureau, Woodburn Children's Home, Wells Community Boys & Girls Club, YMCA.

CHAUTAUQUA

The Chautauqua Literary Club met November 4, 2016 in the Calico Room at Warren Heritage Pointe.

President Peggy Schweikhardt calls the meeting to order at 1:30 p.m. Roll call response was naming a landmark in Indiana.

Sandy Thompson gave an interesting program on The Apostles and Jesus by Artist, Kenneth Wyatt from Tulia, Texas.

Kenneth Wyatt had always wanted to be a minster since he was 14 years old. He became a minister for 30 years and then in the 1960's he decided to become a full time artist. He says his talent is God given. He never had an art lesson.

"Introduction by Kenneth Wyatt"

To pick up a brush, touch it to a dab of paint, reach up to the canvas and then begin to create an image, which I pray will mean something to others as well as myself, is always a moment of real challenge and excitement. As I began painting The Apostles, I felt the exuberance of actually starting and a determination to do my best. Next, came my complete commitment to the long months of involvement with these painting and, yet a fear of doing this holy task. Most important of all, I felt joy for the opportunity of serving God and His Church.

That moment of beginning is a lot of dabs of paint and man prayers ago, but all fourteen painting are finished—my concept of Jesus and the first ones He drew around Himself.

Each one different, each one a challenge, each one taking shape on the woven threads of cloth, with layer upon layer of paint until that Apostle looked out from the canvas onto the world that he was called by Christ to save and serve.

After giving extensive research on each apostle, God always seemed to supply the model. His models came from many locations and from many walks of life. Jesus selected His followers in much the same way: He called one from the tax tables, another from the carpenter's trade, a few from the sea, and still others from tents, houses, and deserts. He saw them in his mind and felt them in his heart. He gave extensive research on each Apostle Occupations of those chosen were carpenters, mechanics, truck drivers, and

HEP A WARNING

The Indiana State Department of Health (ISDH) is urging healthcare providers to ask patients who exhibit symptoms of hepatitis A about recent strawberry consumption as part of an investigation into a multistate outbreak of hepatitis A that has been linked to frozen strawberries imported from Egypt and food items containing these strawberries.

ISDH is working with local health departments to determine where and when the potentially contaminated strawberries were served in Indiana. To date, health officials in Marion, Hamilton and Hendricks counties have confirmed that the recalled strawberries were distributed to local restaurants; additional counties could be identified as the investigation continues. Unlike other states, no schools or nursing homes in Indiana have been identified as receiving recalled products.

"Hepatitis A is a serious illness, and we know many people may be concerned about whether they have been exposed through frozen strawberries," said State Health Commissioner Jerome Adams, M.D., M.P.H. "The health and safety of Indiana residents is our top priority, and we are working diligently with local and federal agencies to identify where the strawberries were distributed and minimize the risk of infection."

Hepatitis A is caused by a virus that inflames the liver. Signs and symptoms of infection include: Nausea, Vomiting, Diarrhea, Loss of appetite, Abdominal pain, Fever, Jaundice (yellowing of the skin or eyes).

Symptoms can take up to 50 days to appear after exposure. Not everyone infected with the virus will exhibit symptoms, but all infected individuals can transmit the disease to others through contact with stool or unwashed hands.

Currently, eight restaurants in Marion, Hamilton and Hendricks counties have confirmed that they served products containing the affected strawberries in the last two weeks. Anyone who consumed a food item that contained strawberries at a restaurant in those counties since Nov. 1 should contact these local health departments for more information.

Individuals who may have been exposed to hepatitis A within the last two weeks can receive either a vaccine or immunoglobulin, depending on their age, to help prevent infection by contacting their health care provider or local health department. Those whose potential exposure occurred prior to Nov. 1 should contact their healthcare provider to determine whether testing for hepatitis A is appropriate, especially if symptoms develop.

The current investigation into imported frozen strawberries is the most recent development in a national recall that began in January. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) initially issued the recall in association with strawberry smoothies but expanded the scope of the recall as it discovered that additional products were affected. ISDH was notified on November 8 that the strawberries affected by the recall had been distributed in Indiana and immediately began surveying local health departments to determine when and how the strawberries were distributed.

For more information about the recall, visit <http://www.cdc.gov/hepatitis/outbreaks/2016/hav-strawberries.htm>. Facilities that may have received affected strawberries in the last two weeks are urged to contact their local health department. Contact information can be found here: <http://www.in.gov/isdh/24822.htm>.

Indiana has averaged 21 new cases of hepatitis A annually for the last five years. The number of cases remains relatively low due to the widespread use of a safe and effective vaccine. People concerned about contracting hepatitis A are urged to obtain the vaccine series from their local health department or their healthcare provider.

Thorough hand washing after using the bathroom, before eating or preparing food, and changing diapers can also help lower the risk of getting or transmitting the virus.

For important health and safety information, visit the Indiana State Department of Health at www.StateHealth.in.gov or follow us on Twitter at @StateHealthIN and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/isdh1.

MORE PAGE 2

Life's problems tend to dominate your thoughts, turning your focus to what you feel is wrong. You may start to resent those who appear to be better off. You're apt to dwell on things you think would make your life better if you had them. If only you had more money, more time, a bigger house, a different car, a different job, a different boss, had picked a different career, etc.

Once your attitude becomes one of deficiency instead of abundance and appreciation, you can become overwhelmed by feelings of frustration and feel like a victim. As this happens, a consuming vicious cycle starts.

Being bitter or resentful blows situations out of proportion. People who are bitter frequently find that their situations deteriorate and their mental and physical health decays.

It's difficult, if not impossible, to achieve your goals while you are bitter or resentful. Regardless of what challenges might befall you, bitterness makes finding solutions much more elusive.

There is no point to feeling bitter since it accomplishes nothing, harms you and makes things worse. Filling yourself with gratitude on a daily basis makes you feel good, while driving out negative feelings.

Begin your practice of gratitude each morning as soon as you wake. Every day is a great day. If you have any doubts, try missing one. Take inventory of everything, no matter how small or seemingly insignificant, that is good in your life.

If it helps, make a written list of all things you are grateful for. Read your list every day. As you do this, you will build and reinforce your attitude of gratitude. Don't waste any time with what you feel you don't have.

Keep things in perspective. Consider all the people who have overcome difficulties far worse than yours. Don't be consumed by your problems, there is always a solution. Maintaining an attitude of gratitude allows your mind to devise a resolution for your circumstances.

Make everyday a day of Thanksgiving and you will be amazed how much better your life will become.

VETERANS DAY 2016

Salamonie staff and students were honored to host a Veteran's Day breakfast and program on Friday for students and family members who served in the military or who currently serve. The Salamonie Kids Care Club, made up of several third graders, worked hard to organize this special event. Guests were treated to delicious food provided by our wonderful teachers and assistants as well as our amazing cook staff. Students presented each Veteran with a card and a note sharing why their veteran is special to them. Salamonie Boy Scouts posted the flag and led the pledge of allegiance. Ava Poulson, fifth grader sang the National Anthem. Kids Care Club members shared important words about Veteran's Day and also presented the flag for each military branch as a medley of their songs played. Veterans stood and were recognized as each flag came in. The program concluded with a touching rendition America the Beautiful as the Kids Care Club sang the first verse and then the Veterans and student body joined in for the second. We were thrilled to have so many honored guests in attendance. We thank each and every one for their service!
