GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

Rev. Hubert Harriman will bring the message. Rev. Harriman was born and raised in Bolivia, the son of missionaries from World Gospel Mission. Rev. Harriman is the President of WGM, which is located in Marion, Indiana.

Rev. Harriman pastored Ligonier Evangelical Church for 26 years.

Rev. Harriman earned his B.A. in Bible from Vennard College (Iowa) before doing graduate work at Jerusalem College University (Israel) with a major in historical geography. He also earned an M.A. in church history from Anderson School of Theology (Indiana). He and his wife, Sarah, have three grown daughters.

Water In2 Wine will bring the music. Aaron & Jonathan Ashlock, and their newest member, Kristen Huntoon, make up the group. In 1996 they began holding concerts.

Aaron & Jonathan grew up in Brazil, South America, where their parents were missionaries. They are students at Indiana Wesleyan University (Marion). Aaron writes some of their music and plays the piano.

Kristen, their newest member, from Logansport, Indiana, is a graduate of Indiana University (Bloomington).

You are invited by the WAMA churches to come and remember the sacrifice of our Lord on Good Friday at Wesleyan Church. A free-will offering will be taken.

CEREMONY CANCELLED

The Indiana Veterans' Service Officers' Association (INVSOA) announced today their membership has voted to cancel upcoming French Thank-You-America ceremonies scheduled for Evansville on May 17th, Logansport on July 19th and Corydon, Indiana on a date which had not yet been announced, during which veterans of World War II were to receive certificates from the French government thanking them for their participation in the Liberation of France during WWII.

Out of the ninety-one Indiana counties which have county Veterans' Service Officers, sixty-two have voted. Fifty of them voted to withdraw sponsorship of the ceremonies, only nine voted to continue the ceremonies and three were undecided. All of those voting to withdraw sponsorship related that veterans of World War II have contacted them and expressed their dissatisfaction with France's stand on the Iraqi situation. They cite the 65,000 American servicemen who are buried in cemeteries in France; 65,000 men who lost their lives during World

Wars I and II to liberate France from German occupation, and the surviving veterans feel, generally, that it would be disloyal to the memory of those who gave their lives to accept a certificate from a government which was not willing to put French blood on the line in Iraq when America needed their help.

Many even stated they are considering returning Normandy Medals which were presented to them in 1994 on the 50th anniversary of the D-Day Invasion.

World War II veterans are very upset with the government of France and, in light of those feelings, the INVSOA feels it is necessary to withdraw from these ceremonies. The French Embassy in Chicago is currently considering whether or not they will mail the certificates to those WWII veterans who have already applied. Veterans who have applied and who wish to receive their certificates by mail should contact the embassy in Chicago at 312-787-6294.

SCHOOL CARNIVAL

There will be food, fun, games, Moonwalk and the Jump Rope Team will be performing, Many Raffle prize - such as a rocker from Cracker Barrel, Razor Scooter, Bike, Autographed Komet Hockey Sticks, numerous savings bonds, Bingo with many generous prizes and class themed basket auction in which the proceeds from the filled basket will be provided to the class sponsoring it. This will be a fun family night for all ages. We would like everyone from the community to come out and see the new Faces of Partners In Education and help us to celebrate a wildly successful year in supporting our children's school.

CONSUMER ALERT

As Operation Iraqi Freedom dominates the headlines, Better Business Bureaus (BBBs) report that scam artists are playing to people's patriotism and preying on heightened concerns about homeland security to peddle their wares.

"It's unfortunate to think that citizens are the target of scam artists even during time of war. BBB experience shows, however, that fraud perpetrators pick newsworthy events to trigger interest in their marketing ploys," said Ken Hunter, president and CEO of the Council of Better Business Bureaus.

To date, BBBs have identified three types of war-related pitches being used by legitimate organizations, as well as less reputable merchandisers: (1) pleas for funds to help victims of the war or those fighting in the war, (2) appeals to patriotism and claims of government affiliation or approval, and (3) promotions that hype up fear and panic.

"In times of prosperity or poverty, when we're at peace or at war, BBB advice is constant: Be a Savvy Shopper and a Discerning Donor."

BBBs urge consumers to Check out any unknown business or not-for-profit organization that seeks your money or donation with the BBB (www.bbb.org) and local consumer protection agency.

Carefully verify any claims that sound "too good to be true." Do not panic or overreact to sales pitches that are long on emotion

THE EASTER STORY

Very early on Sunday morning, the women went to Jesus' tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared.

They found the stone rolled away from the entrance to the tomb, so they went in; but they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

They stood there puzzled about this, when suddenly two angels in bright shining clothes stood by them. Full of fear, the women bowed down to the ground as the angels said to them, "Why are you looking among the dead for One who is alive? He is not here; he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was in Galilee: "The Son of Man must be handed over to sinful men, be crucified, and three days later rise to life."

The women remembered His words, returned from the tomb and told all of these things to the disciples and all the rest.

The women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary, the mother of James. They and the other women told these things to the apostles. But the apostles thought that what they said was nonsense and they did not believe them.

Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He bent down and saw the grave cloths but nothing else. Then he went back home, amazed at what happened.

EGGS MAKE EASTER TRADITIONS

The North American Easter egg hunt can be exciting for kids of all ages. That includes little kids hoping for their share of the candy and big kids who think they'll find eggs stuffed with money and other rewards.

Easter bunnies are nice, but it's the eggs that surprise you, even crack you up with laughter. One of the greatest Easter traditions comes from the America's Southwest and Mexico. Cascarones! They are blown eggs that are dyed, painted, and filled with confetti. Families spend Easter cooking and making merry while the children and adults plot to crack cascarones over unsuspecting heads. By evening, big cascarone fights leave floors and grounds covered with colorful and sparkling confetti.

It takes time to clean up after a cascarone fight, but the task is more pleasant than cleaning up after egg-cracking competitions in Greece. After Greek Orthodox Easter, people use the pointed ends of eggs to crack on the heads of their opponents. It can get pretty messy because they use raw eggs.

In Austria, decorating eggs is an art. Austrians boil eggs and then turn them into creations of pattern, color, and texture. The eggs are sometimes scratched with a decorative pattern that reveals the white shell. Sugar eggs are decorated with frosting.

THE PASSOVER STORY

As Jewish families gather for the Passover Seder, a ceremonial dinner, they are guided by a book called the Haggadah, meaning narration.

The Haggadah is a collection of illustrated excerpts from sacred books recalling how the Israelites, more than 3,300 years ago, were liberated from slavery in Egypt, and how they fled into the desert to freedom. Although it has been translated for centuries, authorities at the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York City say most translations remain true to the earliest copies made.

The Seder is a time of excitement for children. Traditionally, the youngest child reads some of the story of the Exodus as proof that the story is passed from generation to generation.

The family leans in their chairs to show they are at ease and free from slavery. They partake of bitter herbs to recall their slavery, and eat matzoh, the unleavened bread, representing the haste with which they had to leave Egypt.

CRAFT DONATIONS NEEDED

Some of the requested items have been donated for Imagination Square, the children's art area within the Festival of the Arts in downtown Warren May 17, 2003. However, the "little artists" will need more to work with.

Within the Inventor Center, children can use any number of materials to craft, construct and create an artistic piece. In order to do that, the festival committee needs to stock up on various recyclables and unused products.

If you have any of the items listed below, please contact Anita Sharpe at 375-2851 to make delivery arrangements. Your donations should not include objects made of glass or sharp objects. The needed items include: old holiday decorations, plastic lids or containers, cardboard food boxes, cloth material used for sewing, craft materials, bubble wrap, empty paper rolls, yarn, masking tape, old shirts - to use as painter's smocks, new crayons and markers

In addition to collecting the items listed above, the festival committee is also in search of coffee cans. These will be placed next to each of the "Festival of Chair" entries. Visitors will vote for their favorite decorated chair with penny votes tossed into the cans.

If you have any empty coffee cans to donate, please contact Debbie Dyer at 356-8874 to make drop-off arrangements.

SPECIAL CONCESSIONS

Military personnel serving in combat zones will receive automatic extensions of time both to file their Indiana state taxes and to renew their Indiana Commercial Drivers' Licenses while on active duty, the Indiana Department of Revenue has announced.

Military personnel will have 180 days after they leave the combat zone to file their state tax returns. In order to receive the extension of time, they should write "Combat Zone" in large letters across the top of their returns and mail them to: Indiana Department of Revenue, P.O. Box 2305, Indianapolis, Indiana 46206-2305.

Returns from "Combat Zone" filers will be screened and processed separately, department officials say. (All late filers need to realize that an extension of time to file does not mean an extension of time to pay. State statute requires that 90% of estimated tax due be submitted by April 15, 2003.)

Click on "Up to the Minute" on the department's home Web page, www.in.gov/dor/, for more information on this special tax filing extension.

The department, in conjunction with the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles, is also granting extensions of time to members of the armed forces holding Commercial Drivers Licenses (CDL's) who are absent from the state on military orders when either their CDL's or physical examinations expire.

CDL drivers will have 90 days after their discharge from the military for renewal and will not be required to take another written or skills test.

The new CDL policy is applicable to members of the National Guard, reserves, and regular military services who are returning from an initial term of enlistment. (Any service personnel who engaged in non-military commercial driving while on active duty must maintain a valid CDL at all times.)

For more information on this special CDL extension, contact the CDL Section of the Motor Carrier Services Division of the Indiana Department of Revenue, 5252 Decatur Blvd., Indianapolis, IN 46241, 317-615-7335.

PROPERTY TAX INFO

There was a meeting held recently between the Assessors, Auditor, and Treasurer. We discussed the timeline of where we are at in relation to the Property Tax Deadline. Even though the Assessors feel they will be finished with their portion of the timeframe at the end of April, there is another step called "Equalization" that must be completed before Assessed Values can be sent off to the State for approval.

This "Equalization" means several studies per Township must be completed before the State will approve the Assessed Values. At the present time 14 counties (out of 92) have sent in their values and only 9 have been approved. Once approved by the State, figures will be rolled over to the Auditors for further preparation after tax rates are given by the State. An abstract must be prepared on final tax figures and again sent into the State for approval. Once approval given, then the tax bills can be printed and sent out.

At the present time and IF EVERYTHING GOES WELL, we hope to have a late summer collection. However, if things do not go well, we may end up having a one-time collection for November 10, 2003 only. The bills would be sent out as early as possible and payment could be made at your choosing by Nov. 10th.

The appeal process will still be in place. The tax bill can serve as notification of the new assessed value, and you would have 45 days to appeal. If there are two tax installments, the first installment would have to be paid, then corrected bills would be sent out prior to the second installment.

I am still urging all taxpayers (businesses and homeowners) to take advantage of advance payments. Two reasons for these advances. First, taxpayers can pay whatever amount they wish, once taxes are calculated and rolled over to the treasurer, then we run a process to apply the advance payments to your individual tax parcel. If you have paid to much for 1st installment, then the excess would be applied to your second installment. At the present time letters are being prepared to send to businesses encouraging them to pay as well. Second, advance payments received from each taxing unit can then be distributed to the taxing units payment came from. This will enable each unit to keep cash flow going to pay their bills and employees.

The Treasurer's Office has had recurring questions if people will be penalized if they do not pay by May 10th. No they will not. The deadlines have not been definitely set, therefore no penalties.

Don Schoeff and Cindy Yeiter, Huntington County Treasurer, were at a meeting, April 9th with other County Auditors and Treasurers and the State has told them that there are 27 counties that will not be done with reassessment by the end of the year. Huntington County is in the middle of the pack.

BLOOD DRIVE

Through our Congressional Charter, the Red Cross has a long history of support the military in times of need. In addition to Armed Forces Emergency Services and International Services, the American Red Cross, together with our partners in the blood banking community, is prepared to support the military's blood needs when and if it is called upon. In order to ensure in advance that patients are protected with a safe and adequate supply, we urge the public to help by donating blood as frequently as every eight weeks. It is the blood on the shelves today that saves lives.

A blood drive is scheduled for Saturday, May 3, from 7 am until 1pm, at Central Christian Church. Central Christian Church is located at 500 McGahn, in Huntington.

If you are 17 years of age, weigh a minimum of 110 pounds and are in good general health you may be eligible to donate blood. For more information or to schedule your appointment to donate blood, call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE (1-800-448-3543).

Easter Sunday worship will feature the Warren UMC teens who will present a vignette of Jesus suffering, death and Resurrection. Worship begins at 10:30. Child care is available.

Come and join us as we remember the Lord's last hours and celebrate the gift of eternal life that is the miracle of Easter. Warren UMC is located at the corner of Third and Main Streets, next to Cady's Express, in downtown Warren.

LETTERS CAPTURE MEMORIES

Rainbow-colored blooms delivered to your door. Boxes of chocolates exchanged and savored. A telephone conversation heating up the wires. Despite the joy of those moments, memories fade away. But a handwritten letter or carefully chosen card provides a memory you can touch and relive forever.

To a generation raised on fast food, faxes, computers, and instant messaging, letter writing seems to belong to a more leisurely time in our past lives, when people were not so rushed, so tired, so exhausted. Yet many people are discovering that writing or reading a letter can bring a welcome break to their hectic lives. For a few moments, a letter transports us away from a stress-filled day to an oasis where we savor the words of that special person who comes to visit us on paper. And, that visit can be relived again and again each time the letter is brought out and read.

Letters keep special times special. Problems are minimized and put into perspective when they're discussed with a friend in a letter. And your card with a personal "thank you" note "for being there with helpful advice" is always appreciated. You are never alone or lonely when you sit down to write a friend.

So make someone happy and send a card or letter soon. Writing is an inexpensive way to show someone how much you really care.

FOOD ALLERGIES

The Purdue Extension Service of Huntington County is offering a program titled "Food Allergies." It is scheduled for Tuesday, April 22 at 7:00 p.m. at the Extension Office Meeting Room. The Extension Office is in the Court House Annex, which is one block north of the Court House in the former National City Bank. Use the parking lot beside the building and the elevator to second floor.

Approximately 1 % of adults suffer from true food allergies. Children often outgrow theirs by the time they enter school. A true food allergy is a reaction of the body's immune system to something in a food or an ingredient in a food - usually a protein. It can range anywhere from mildly irritating to a serious condition.

Food allergies need to be diagnosed by an allergist. A food intolerance does not involve the immune system, and yet people often incorrectly identify them as allergies.

This program will identify the foods most commonly associated with allergies along with some symptoms, treatments, and possible solutions.

The program will be presented by Trisha Hockemeyer, Extension Educator in Adams County and a Registered Dietician.

The program is for those who have allergies and those who have a family member with allergies, including children. The program is open to the public and free of charge. However, please call the Extension Office (358-4826) so that adequate handout material will be available.

LADIES MET

The Women's Fellowship of the Warren United Church of Christ met in the church lounge on March 24, 2003. President, Roselyn Poulson, called the meeting to order and read an article entitled "Life's Lessons-Setting Priorities". Roselyn Poulson said she made nine more turbans and delivered them to the Lutheran Hospital, Oncology department. She also bought some more material at a good sale price. A report was made on the Bake Sale held March 9th at the Methodist Home. The pencils have been collected and will be delivered April 10th when Peggy Wilson goes to the Women's Fellowship Conference meeting. We also need to send the check for processing costs for the School Kits. There was also a question about the Tools for Hope and Blanket Sunday, and Georgia said it would be arranged soon.

New business: Patty Butler is to purchase two Easter Lilies for the Easter Service as a gift from the Women's Fellowship. Ellen Laymon announced the program for the Mother/Daughter Banquet May 19th will be Donna and Darrell Brown from Markle. They will be presenting a musical variety show. Each person attending should check the Unit they are in for the type of food they are to bring for the carry in. There was a discussion about the reading program this year. You may read a book, or books of your choice, the Bible, and the Conference News Letter which is placed in the church library. The Women's Fellowship Conference no longer has a chairman for the reading program, but they are encouraging all members of the church to continue reading good material.

Ellen Laymon gave the lesson from the yearly program book, "In God's Image". The lesson was "God Loves You". She asked the question "What is your image of yourself". We are all blessed with special gifts or talents, and we should use them, encourage others to use theirs, and extend hospitality. She read from the book of Ephesians, and asked the question of us, "Are you concerned with God's image of you, or what others think of your image". We should be imitators of God's forgiving spirit so that others can see this image of us and be drawn to learn more about God.

She read from the book of Romans that we should give our bodies to Christ, and be honest estimating our own image. We need the gifts of all to make the work of the church complete, and we all are needed. We should hate what is wrong, love with brotherly love, be patient when God's children need help and we should be quick to help them. We come in imperfect bodies, but we should give ourselves wholly, and have God's spirit within us. Remember, we are made in God's image. She read from the 2nd book of Corinthians and Psalm 100. God gives us comfort and we should extend comfort to others. She also mentioned that if the world would practice what we learned in kindergarten, it would be a better place.

God honors us by commissioning us to be his ambassadors and in doing so we should remember these five things: Read the Bible daily, keep looking to Jesus, pray without ceasing, confess him to others, and do something for Jesus. God uses our hands, feet, and tongues to enable us to help others. God sees us for what we can become, not what we are. Because God doesn't give up on us, we shouldn't give up on others.

The group formed the Love Circle with the singing of "Have Thou Own Way", and praying the Mizpah Benediction and receiving the love gift.

Hostesses Carlene Jackson and Betty Parker served delicious refreshments to: Ellen Laymon, Nancy Smyth, Maxine Jones, Georgia Poulson, Peggy Wilson, Roselyn Poulson, Eileen Dye, Rosemary Zeller, and Jo Spade.

AFTER SCHOOL STORY TIME

Twelve children attended the After School Story Time at the Van Buren Public Library on Friday April 4, 2003 to celebrate our Great Town of Van Buren.

As the children entered into the children's department of the library they received a picture to color and a popcorn search-a-word to do, since Weaver Popcorn is such a large part of Van Buren.

Karen read some information found in the library about Van Buren. Our town was not always called Van Buren. In 1843, George Rood was the first settler here. That is why the town was called Rood's Corner, then Rood's Town, then String Town. On July 10th, 1872, the name was officially changed to Van Buren. This name came from the name of the township it was in and the post office here was Van Buren. Martin Van Buren was the 8th president of the United States and president during this time. It was very interesting finding out how our town came to be. We also had talked about the different businesses that were here and some that left with the changes of time. Karen shared some old pictures of our town that were found in the library. The library also has school year books from years past that are really interesting to look at.

The children did an Indiana map quiz and on the reverse side of the paper was a map of Van Buren with some statistics and facts about our town. We also wrote a note on picture postcards of Van Buren to send to our young people in the service.

Refreshments were pop and we made some microwave caramel corn from popcorn, donated by Weaver's.

Those v/ho attended were: Frankie Flemming, Thomas Flemming, Icily Baker, Derek Showalter, Erin Pearson, Brittlyn Davis, Cameron Riddle, Cassie Davis, Isaac Pearson, David Irwin, Maryrose Bums, and Sarah Pearson.

TRI KAPPA MET

The April meeting of the Gamma Upsilon Chapter of Tri-Kappa convened at Karen Campbell's home Tuesday, April 1. It was preceded by a meal of salad, pizza and ice cream prepared by Stacia Perry, Rita Bolinger, Karen McCoy and Kristina Smekens.

President Debbie Ledbetter called the meeting to order by announcing the March Sunday Lunch at the Civic Center was a success.

Karen Hunnicutt stated that Tri Kappa would have nuts to sell at Handcrafters when they open this spring.

Officer's Karen Campbell and Karen Hunnicutt will attend State Convention later this month with President Debbie Ledbetter.

A drawing for Pulse Opera House tickets revealed several winners. The lucky winners were Bridget Swaidner, Suellen Jones, Nancy Bonham, Judy Bradford, Jane Lieurance, Karen McCoy, Deb Furnish, Kristina Smekens, Karen Campbell and Debbie Ledbetter.

Stacia Perry announced there would be swimming lessons in May and June. A sign up time will be given at a later date.

Those in attendance were Nancy Bonham, Rita Bolinger, Judy Bradford, Karen Campbell, Deb Furnish, Karen Hunnicutt, Suellen Jones, Debbie Ledbetter, Jane Lieurance, Karen McCoy, Stacia Perry, Kristina Smekens and Bridget Swaidner.

EUCHRE CLUB

Euchre Club met at the home of Mary Jo Zoda. Jane Lieurance won High (how about that Ernie); Marge Jones had Low and Sharron Roush and Phyllis Dickey tied for most Lones. Others playing were Carolyn Carroll, Sharon Gebhart, Mary Ann Monce, Joan Huffman, Marjorie Michaud, Florence Taylor and Jo Banter. Next month Marge Jones will be the hostess.

DEPT OF REVENUE WARNING

The Indiana Department of Revenue warns state businesses to be cautious of any company that contacts them and wants to review their books on behalf of the Department. According to State Revenue Commissioner Kenneth

L. Miller, the Department has received word of a company contacting taxpayers and stating that it is working in cooperation with the Department. "No agreement exists between the Department and a third party to examine financial records of Indiana business," said Miller. "For the Department to even share the names and addresses of taxpayers would be a violation of the state's confidentiality laws."

At least one company has contacted Indiana taxpayers. Apparently if it is able to review the financial records of a business and is able to find a state refund owed the company, it would keep a percentage of the refund.

To report additional information regarding this matter, taxpayers may contact the Department's Criminal Investigation Division at 317/232-3376.
